IGF President's Message

"I believe the IGF's role is more important than ever as we continue to promote the growth, inclusiveness, and integrity of our sport."

Dear Members,

Golf has proven to be a remarkably resilient sport, whose ability to rise above any challenge has been strengthened by an unprecedented collaborative spirit among its leading organisations that prioritises golf's wellbeing over any friction or disruption that might take place.

In that regard, I believe the International Golf Federation's (IGF's) role is more important than ever as we continue to promote the growth, inclusiveness, and integrity of our sport through our administrative duties and the organisation of Olympic Games, World Amateur Team Championships (WATC) and other competitions.

In fact, the 2023 WATC in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates, serves as a prime example of that purpose, highlighted by this being the first time since its 1958 inception the WATC has been held in the Middle East. I'm excited to see this happen from a personal perspective, not only as a two-time participant in the WATC but also from my fond memories from being a guest at the inaugural 2016 Ladies European Tour event held in Abu Dhabi. During that visit, I witnessed first-hand the excitement and interest golf generated through a clinic we conducted for local school children and how the tournament and participating athletes could inspire young girls and women to learn the game. The 2023 WATC, through the excellent ► work of the Emirates Golf Federation, certainly can do the same for both boys and girls.

This is a year of firsts in several other ways for the WATC. The format has been streamlined whereby both fields have a 36-team capacity competing on a single golf course, significantly reducing the financial burden and complexity of hosting the event. To ensure diversified fields, both competitions also include a minimum of three National Federation members from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania. This also marks the first time the men will compete before the women, with the 33rd Eisenhower Trophy and 30th Espirito Santo Trophy on the line, respectively. Finally, this is the first WATC to be held in an odd year, resolving a conflict previously faced with the Olympic Games.

While the successful staging of the WATC has been an immediate focus, we continue preparations for the fast-approaching golf competition at the Olympic Games Paris 2024, scheduled for 1-4 August for the men and 7-10 August for the women at the Albatross Course at Le Golf National southwest of Paris. We all have seen how compelling and successful golf's return to the Olympic Games has been and the international popularity of the sport through six different countries winning medals in Rio de Janeiro and five in Tokyo.

We expect nothing less at Le Golf National, an outstanding facility that annually hosts the Open de France on the European Tour and held the 2018 Ryder Cup as well as the WATC in 1994 and 2022. It will be here before we know it, with qualifying for the 60-player fields ending on 17 June for the men and 24 June for the women. We're particularly excited to have the opportunity to entertain thousands of fans once again following the closed competitions in Japan due to the pandemic.

Looking further into the future, we recognise the potential of esports and the importance the International Olympic Committee (IOC) is placing on it to engage a younger audience. In fact, the IOC now has established the position of Head of Virtual Sport. The IGF was pleased to be represented at the inaugural Olympic Esports Week in Singapore this past June with an exhibition area that offered interactive opportunities with a gaming console, virtual reality game and two golf simulators. The interest shown by the hundreds of visitors our staff hosted each day was encouraging and furthers our ► commitment to work with the IOC Sport and Digital departments to develop an esport series for golf.

While the WATC, Olympic Games and esports represent continued advancement and exciting opportunities for the future, I would be remiss not to mention the extreme disappointment of the IGF's struggle to gain golf's acceptance as a Paralympic sport, which we believe offers as great an opportunity for our sport as any initiative.

We were obviously very disappointed with the International Paralympic Committee's (IPC) decision to not include golf on the sport programme for the LA2028 Paralympic Games, as we believed we again presented a compelling argument on the tremendous benefits and contributions that golf's inclusion can bring to the Paralympic Games.

With that said, we strongly believe golf belongs in the Paralympic Games and will continue to make the case. Olympic golf is both inspirational and aspirational and we know it would have the same impact as a Paralympic sport, generating global interest and inspiring a new generation of athletes with impairments to participate.

As always, we have plenty of work to do, with these and other initiatives ahead including the Commonwealth Games and Youth Olympic Games in Dakar. In that same collaborative spirit I mentioned at the outset, we look forward to working with you on the many successes to come. ●

IGF Executive Director's Report

It is my pleasure to present the Executive Director's Report on the activities of the IGF Administration since the Biennial meeting held on 29 August 2022 to the IGF's membership.

Changes to WATC

The 2023 World Amateur Team Championships (WATC) see the change to holding the championships every odd year, removing the conflict with the Olympic and Youth Olympic Games and the reduction of the field size to a minimum of 36 teams, reducing the complexity and costs that host National Federations incur. Following the 2023 edition of the WATC, a detailed analysis and review of the field size and the qualification system will be undertaken by the Competition Committee with any recommendations being presented to the Administrative Committee for consideration.

Success of 2022 WATC France

The 2022 WATC were successfully held from 24 August to 3 September 2022 at Le Golf National (Albatross course) and St-Nom-La-Bretèche (Red course) in Paris, France. The 29th Espirito Santo Championship, was won by Sweden on countback, whilst Italy were victors in the 32nd Eisenhower Trophy. The IGF acknowledges and thanks the French Golf Federation (FFG) for their enormous contribution to the ► Championships' success. Led by Pascal Grizot and Christophe Muniesa, the FFG staff and their volunteers worked extremely hard to produce memorable Championships. Both golf clubs are commended on the condition of the courses, which received high praise from the players.

IOC Olympic Esports Week

The IGF participated in the International Olympic Committee's (IOC's) inaugural Olympic Esports Week that was held in Singapore on 23-25 June 2023. The IGF was provided space within the Free to Play Zone, whereby four different publishers, 2K Games, Golf +, Trackman and Full Swing, were able to display three different representations or "disciplines" of golf within esports that included, console video gaming, virtual reality gaming and simulators.

All the publishers were extremely positive of their experience and expressed their interest in working with IGF to be a competition within the next Olympic Esports Series. The IGF is now collaborating with the publishers and the IOC to explore opportunities for our sport within future editions of the Olympic Esports Week.

Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026

The IOC Executive Board has confirmed that the dates for the Youth Olympic Games (YOG) Dakar 2026 will be 31 October to 13 November 2026. There is currently an IOC-IF consultation being conducted to review the disciplines, events, and athlete quota for Dakar 2026. The review will then be finalised by the IOC Executive Board at its meeting in Q4 2023 / Q1 2024. A wider review process on the general positioning and approach of the YOG is being conducted as part of the IOC Games Optimisation Group's work. ►

Golf for the Disabled LA 2028 Paralympic Games Bid

Disappointingly, the International Paralympic Committee (IPC) Executive Council did not admit golf as a sport on the programme for the Paralympic Games Los Angeles 2028. No new sports were added within the 22-sport limit that was imposed by the IOC; however, the LA28 Organising Committee were given the option to admit only two additional sports, Para surfing and Para climbing, at their own financial expense. The IGF remains committed to golf's admission to the Paralympic Games and is currently reassessing its current strategy on growth and development of golf for the disabled.

Despite the IPC's decision, elite international events for golfers with a disability are flourishing with the creation of the G4D Tour, US Adaptive Open and the G4D Open in the past year. All of which can only strengthen the case for Paralympic Games admission.

Gender Identity & Sex Variations

The IGF working group is continuing to develop a Gender Identity and Sex Variations policy. This is an extraordinarily complex matter with several challenging requirements within the IOC's "Framework" such as peer reviewed research specific to golf, which has slowed the progress on the completion of the policy. That said we are now working towards having the first release of the policy by year's end or the beginning of 2024 in time for the Olympic Games, although, it is highly unlikely any transgender athlete will qualify.

It should also be noted that the IGF policy is for international and professional golf events, and each National Federation member will need to determine whether the laws within the country will permit the adoption of the IGF policy. Once the IGF Policy is released, we will be facilitating information workshops and webinars for our membership to provide information on the IGF policy with members from the committee. ►

Ukraine

At its April meeting the IGF Board reaffirmed its unwavering support and solidarity with our Ukrainian athletes and federation who are confronted daily with terrible hardship due to this war. The IGF remains steadfast in its commitment to assist them in every way possible.

Having considered the IOC recommendations for International Federations and international sports event organisers on the participation of athletes with a Russian or Belarusian passport in international competitions, the Board determined that for all IGF events:

- Teams of athletes with a Russian or Belarusian passport cannot be considered. ►

- Athletes with a Russian or a Belarusian passport must compete only as Individual Neutral Athletes.

- Any such Individual Neutral Athlete, like all the other participating athletes, must meet all anti-doping requirements applicable to them, as set out in the anti-doping rules of the IGF.
- No flag, anthem, colours, or any other identifications whatsoever of these countries be displayed at any sports event or meeting, including the entire venue.
- Athletes who actively support the war cannot compete. Support personnel who actively support the war cannot participate.
- Athletes who are contracted to the Russian or Belarusian military or national security agencies cannot compete. Support personnel who are contracted to the Russian or Belarusian military or national security agencies cannot participate.

At this point in time the IOC has not made a decision regarding the participation of Russian and Belarusian athletes at the Olympic Games Paris 2024, and as such the IGF board has deferred any decision on their participation at the Olympic golf competitions until a decision is made by the IOC.

IGF Board & Administrative Committee

Finally, I would like to thank the IGF Board and the Administrative Committee for their guidance and support and to recognise the outstanding leadership provided by our President, Annika Sörenstam, and Chair, Keith Pelley, throughout the year. ●

The National Federation Members appoint the Board Members to govern the IGF.

The Committee was instrumental in coordinating the one-year-out Olympic Games related communication to athletes, National Federations (NFs) and National Olympic Committees (NOCs). Open communication between the IGF, the athletes and their NFs and NOCs is key to helping the athletes plan appropriately for the Games. The IGF will continue to provide regular information through to July next year. ●

IGF Competitions Committee

The IGF Competitions Committee aims to ensure the best Olympic golf events possible by overseeing the management and presentation of the Olympic golf competitions, including ensuring that all athletes nominated to compete in the Olympic golf competition are eligible to participate. It also recommends referees/officials for the Olympic golf competition.

The Olympic Games function (OGF) provides support to the Competitions Committee. It works closely with the Organising Committee for the Olympic Games (OCOG) to ensure that all elements of the venue and the field of play conform to IGF technical standards. The OGF also oversees the overall service provision to athletes, IGF personnel and technical officials at the competition venues to enable them to conduct their Games-time roles, in support of the competition. The IGF oversees the running of the Olympic event in conjunction with the Organising Committee and is the focal point for OCOG contact in relation to competition issues.

The Committee continues to focus on:

- The agronomy and homologation plans for Le Golf National, host of
- the golf competition at the Olympic Games Paris 2024
- Sport Delivery Plan milestones
- Venue plans
- Service levels for International Technical Officials ●

IGF Coaching & Growth Committee

The IGF Coaching & Growth Committee continues working on developing qualification specifications for each of the four levels of coaching qualifications and awards, as per the objectives defined in the IGF Coaching Framework. The collaboration and contribution of several education experts from the PGAs and The R&A is critical to the project and is highly valued.

Olympic Solidarity

- Following a successful Level 1 Technical Course for Coaches in Bosnia and Herzegovina in October 2021, the National Federation requested support for additional courses. An additional Level 1 course and a Level 2 course were held in Sarajevo in October and November 2022.
- A Technical Course for Coaches is due to take place in Hanoi, Vietnam, in Q4 2023.
- Olympic Solidarity provided financial support for the inaugural African High-Performance Programme camp, which was held at the Royal Johannesburg and Kensington Golf Club in South Africa, in December 2022. Fifteen players and four coaches from Kenya, Zimbabwe, Zambia, and Uganda attended the camp.

- Following the success of the camp, Olympic Solidarity committed to offer financial support through to 2024 and a second High-Performance Programme camp was delivered in early July 2023.
- The IGF is looking at opportunities for similar support for development programmes in other regions of the world.

Olympic Scholarships for Athletes Paris 2024

This Olympic Solidarity programme supports elite athletes selected and proposed by their respective National Olympic Committees (NOCs) in their preparation and qualification for the Olympic Games Paris 2024, with a particular focus on athletes and NOCs with the greatest needs. The scholarships assist athletes in accessing facilities in their home countries or in training centres abroad where they are offered suitable technical, medical and scientific support, as well as reimbursement of travel expenses for the Olympic Games qualifying competitions. ●

For the Olympic Games Paris 2024, a total of nine scholarships were awarded. Seven scholarships for the following athletes and their NOCs are currently active:

2022 WATC

Dr Patrick Schamasch oversaw the delivery of medical services during the World Amateur Team Championships in 2022 with the French Golf Federation's doctor complimenting the medical care offered to athletes and other stakeholders. Physiotherapy services were also available.

During the Championships, Dr Margo Mountjoy conducted a survey on female athlete health that received an overwhelming response rate of 96%. The summary results include:

- 63.1% of the golfers experienced injury/musculo-skeletal complaints of which about half were caused by training or playing golf. ►

- About half of the golfers reported that injury prevention exercises were either always (21.0%) or often (29.6%) a regular part of their daily training
- More than a third (37.2%) of the golfers had an illness/physical complaint not related to injury in the four weeks prior to the Championship.

- Almost one third of the golfers (32.5%) experienced mental health problems in the four weeks prior to the Championship.
- In the four weeks prior to the WATC, 78.1% of the golfers had no difficulties participating in normal training and competition due to injury, illness or other health problems.
- Almost 80% of the golfers rated their daily training environment (e.g., facilities, support staff) either as very good or good.

An IGF working group will develop outcomes resulting from the study. To complement the survey, Dr Mountjoy presented on Enhancing Sport Performance through Maximising Female Golfer Health during the WATC. ►

Vale Dr Bruce Thomas

On 3 May 2023, our dear colleague and friend, Dr Bruce Thomas passed away. Bruce was a valued member of the IGF Medical Committee since its inception in 2011 and contributed greatly throughout this time. It was a privilege to have him be part of the IGF Medical team at the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020, where his professionalism and knowledge as a physician and the personal warmth he exuded was on display, affirming the reason for the deep admiration he had garnered over the years from the players within women's professional golf. He leaves us with a great legacy in sport medicine and most especially within women's golf where he was the Chief Medical Officer of the LPGA since 2006.

We shall miss him dearly. ●

During this year's WATC, the IGF will partake in the ASOIF project aimed at assessing players' experiences relating to safe sport, injury and mental health. This is part of the IGF's commitment to athlete safeguarding.

The Medical Committee continues to work in a number of other areas, including:

- Transgender and hypoandrogenist athletes
- Prevention of Injury and Illness in Golf
- Golf for health/physical activity promotion
- IGF Event Coverage Guidelines, Air Quality Guidelines, Heat Guidelines. ●

IGF Anti-Doping Committee

In 2022, the IGF delegated its Anti-Doping Programme to the International Testing Agency (ITA). Since then, the IGF and the ITA have completed a number of Code compliance requirements, namely the development of a comprehensive Risk Assessment for golf and a 4-year IGF Anti-Doping Education Plan. The plan aims to provide an effective and streamlined approach to anti-doping education for the golfing community and in 2024 ►

it will be tailored towards the needs of potential Olympic athletes.

During the northern hemisphere summers of 2022 and 2023, the ITA delivered a series of five webinars on various aspects of anti-doping, aimed at National Federations, their athletes and athlete support personnel. Additionally, the ITA provided a successful outreach programme at Le Golf National during the 2022 WATC to educate athletes and their entourage on the dangers and consequences of doping. A similar programme will be delivered during the 2023 WATC. The 2023 WATC Anti-Doping Handbook was finalised in mid-2023.

The ITA will conduct testing, on behalf of the IGF, at the 2023 WATC and again at the Olympic Games Paris 2024. The IGF will test all participating athletes prior to the Olympic Games.

The IGF was represented at the annual WADA Symposium in Lausanne in March 2023. ●

IGF Golfers with Disabilities Committee & IPC Relations

The IGF Golfers with Disabilities Committee is an advisory body appointed by the IGF Board to advise on all matters related to golf for the disabled.

In 2022, the IGF submitted an application for golf's inclusion in the Paralympic Games Los Angeles 2028. Disappointingly, the submission was not accepted, and no new sports were added to the 22 sports already on the programme. Despite this, much progress has been made within golf to develop the growth and development of elite disabled golf events, such as the US Adaptive Open which has recently enjoyed its second successful year, the inaugural G4D Open and the G4D Tour. Following the IPC decision not to admit golf to the Paralympic Games sport programme, the IGF will engage the legal firm that has written the IPC Classification Code to re-write the IGF's Classification Code to ensure compliancy with the IPC code.

The IGF was represented at the International Paralympic Committee's Membership Gathering in November 2022 and at the IPC International Federation Open Day in May 2023 and continues to actively contribute to the IPC's Classification surveys and meetings. ●

Sustainability

The IGF and its member organisations recognise sustainability as a core priority, optimising the playing quality of the golf course in harmony with the conservation of its natural environment under economically sound and socially responsible management.

The IGF is once again a signatory to the United National Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) Sports for Climate Action Framework. This requires the IGF to implement a plan to reduce absolute CO2 emissions by 50% by 2030. To this end, the IGF has recently finalised a new Sustainability policy and is in the process of developing the IGF's updated strategy and action plan.

The IGF also participated in the Sport Positive Virtual Summit, which aimed to support the acceleration of positive climate action and ambition, to safeguard the future of global sport.

The International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) has worked with key partners to develop a Sports for Nature Framework to contribute to global efforts to halt and reverse biodiversity loss by 2030. The Sports for Nature Framework aims to deliver nature-positive action, by enabling sports to champion nature and contribute to its protection and restoration. The IGF plans to become a signature member for the Sports for Nature Framework before the end of 2023. ●

IOC Relations

The IGF continues to work closely with the International Olympic Committee (IOC), particularly with the IOC Director of Sport, the IOC Olympic Games Executive Director and other directors and staff at the IOC on the preparation and delivery of the Olympic Games Paris 2024.

The Executive Director:

- attended the ANOC General Assembly in Seoul, Republic of Korea on 19-20 October 2022.
- was reappointed by the IOC President to the IOC Digital and Technology Commissions, which he attended virtually on 29 November 2022.
- participated in three IOC President Consultation calls with International Federations (IFs) in September 2022, January 2023 and March 2023.
- attended a meeting that was held at Olympic House on 31 March 2023 which presented the results of the IF Safe Sport Needs Assessment and the IOC's approach in this area.

A working group will be created to consider the best approach to establishing independent safeguarding systems and structures at the national level. This will ensure that resources are directed to where they are most needed to support athletes and build safeguarding capacity in sport organisations. IFs and other Olympic Movement stakeholders have a fundamental role to play, however, these issues must be addressed locally. The IGF welcomes the leadership and coordination of the IOC since this is an area where we must continue to work together. ●

ASOIF Relations

The IGF is an active and influential member of the Association of Summer Olympic International Federations (ASOIF), which aims to unite, promote and support all International Summer Olympic Federations, while also representing them on issues of common interest in the Summer Olympic Games and the Olympic Movement.

The IGF Executive Director and the ASOIF Director and/or ASOIF President meet regularly on assorted items related to the Olympic Games and ASOIF support for its membership and its relationship with the IOC.

As a member of the ASOIF Multi-Sports Games Working Group, the Executive Director has participated in providing feedback and recommendations on a number of documents provided by Paris 2024 to the IOC and ASOIF concerning the replanning and delivery of the Olympic Games Paris 2024.

The Executive Director:

- attended the ASOIF Olympic and Multi-Sports Games Consultative Group meeting on 30 November 2022 which was also attended by senior representatives from the IOC and Paris 2024 Sport Departments.
- chaired the Commercial Advisory Group meetings that were held in October and November 2022 and January 2023 which discussed the format and topics for the 25 April 2023 ASOIF Commercial Forum.

- attended the ASOIF 47th General Assembly on 31 May 2023 and the ASOIF Governance Workshop on 27 April 2023. ●

GAISF Relations

The Global Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF) is an umbrella body composed of autonomous and independent International Federations (IFs) and other international sport and event-related organisations. The IGF has been a member of GAISF since 1993.

During two Extraordinary General Assemblies in November 2022, GAISF members voted and approved the dissolution of the GAISF organisation.

All contracts and related assets and liabilities pertaining to projects performed by GAISF are to be transferred to SportAccord Convention. ●

IMGA Relations

The Executive Director attended the International Masters Games Association (IMGA) General Assembly, which was held virtually on 16 November 2022.

National Federation members

The IGF member organisations continue to reach golfers around the world.

The IGF recognises 152 National Federation members from 149 countries around the world. In addition, 21 professional golf organisations have been granted Professional membership. ●

Olympic Esports Week 2023 & IGF Digital Strategy

The IGF was offered an exhibition stand in the Free to Play Zone at the inaugural Olympic Esports Week in Singapore in June 2023.

The global virtual and simulated sports competition was also streamed live via different websites and platforms. The IGF stand included four different publishers: 2K Games, Golf+, Trackman and Full Swing, each displaying different technology – a gaming console, a virtual reality golf game and two golf simulators. The highly successful event brought hundreds of visitors to the IGF exhibition stand each day.

During the Olympic Esports Week, the IGF attended an IOC Forum that offered a platform for industry leaders to exchange ideas and share insights on sport and esports alike.

The IGF will continue to work with the IOC Sport and Digital departments on any future opportunities for developing the esport series for golf. ●

An exciting week of golf culminated in Sweden edging out the USA for the Espirito Santo Trophy, with Germany and Japan both earning bronze medals. In the Eisenhower Trophy, Italy secured their first ever golf medal in 32 WATC appearances, with Sweden and the USA rounding out the podium.

A total of 74 National Federation members fielded a team in the 2022 WATC, with all continents represented. Fifty-six teams entered the Espirito Santo Trophy competition while 71 teams lined up for the Eisenhower Trophy.

The IGF would like to thank Pascal Grizot and Christophe Muneisa, ►

Golf de Saint-Nom-la-Bretèche, Paris, France

President and Director General of the French Golf Federation and their staff, as well as Le Golf National and Golf de Saint-Nom-La-Bretèche for their support in staging the championships. Together, they ensured that the teams' experiences, both on and off the field of play, were extremely positive.

Also, our sincere thanks go to The R&A and the USGA for providing resources and financial support to the delivery of the WATC. Finally, we thank the presenting partner, Rolex, for their sponsorship and contribution to the success of the Championships.

Final team results can be found in the appendices. ►

Espirito Santo Trophy – Day 4 recap

Sweden won the Espirito Santo Trophy for the third time on a tiebreaker over the hard-charging USA at the 29th Women's World Amateur Team Championship at Golf de Saint-Nom-La-Bretèche on Saturday.

The Swedes and Americans tied at 13-under par 559 but after comparing non-counting scores, a 1-over-par 73 from Sweden's Louise Rydqvist was one stroke better than Rachel Kuehn's 74 giving Sweden the gold medal and the USA the silver. One stroke behind at 560, Germany and Japan tied for the bronze-medal position.

Ingrid Lindblad, ranked No 2 in the world, fired a 3-under 69 and Meja Ortengren added a 2-under 70 as Sweden made up five strokes on Germany, who held the 54-hole lead.

"Yesterday we were on our way to good scores (at Le Golf National), and we lost everything in the end," said Sweden's head of delegation Fredrik Wetterstrand. "Today, everything went our way, our scores and the other team's scores. I admit it was a little lucky today. Our team played really well. They were fighting hard on the course, and they did it together".

In winning its first medal since capturing bronze in Turkey in 2012, Sweden rebounded from a disappointing fourth-place position in Round 3 after holding the 36-hole lead.

"I knew pretty much all day that I had a counting score," said Lindblad. "We knew that after yesterday at Le Golf National we would have to go for it whether we finished second or 14th. Meja made about a seven-footer for par on the 18th which was so important for us. That was great."

The USA, which began the day four strokes behind Germany, battled its way to a one-stroke lead on the tee of the 72nd hole after a birdie on the 17th by No.1-ranked Rose Zhang.

Zhang, a member of Stanford University's 2022 NCAA Women's ► Division I Championship team, missed the green with her approach on 18 and could not convert a par-saving putt that brought on the tiebreaker. She finished with a 3-under 69 and Stanford and USA Curtis Cup teammate Rachel Heck shot 70.

“There is obviously that tinge of disappointment,” Zhang said. “On that last putt, I actually hit a really good putt exactly where I wanted but it just didn’t go in the hole. It was disappointing to end that way, but I am really proud of how we fought back on the last day.”

Germany could not find its form of Round 3 and posted a fourth-round 145 that left them tied with Japan, who held a short-lived lead early in the round based on a 4-under 68 from Mizuki Hashimoto, the 2021 Asia Pacific Amateur champion. Teammates Saki Baba, the 2022 U.S. Women’s Amateur champion, and Mika Ueta both shot 70.

Helen Briem led Germany with an even par 72 and Celina Rosa Sattelkau shot 73.

“It wasn’t our day, but the girls kept fighting,” said Germany captain Pia Gassner, who played in the WWATC in 2008 and 2010. “It was so close that we knew we needed to make birdies, but we just couldn’t make them. We didn’t lose the gold today; we won the bronze.”

Spain, who held a late lead, was fifth at 561, Chinese Taipei was sixth at 566, Canada and Scotland tied for seventh at 570 and the Czech Republic and the Republic of Korea tied for ninth at 572.

The winning team receives custody of the Espirito Santo Trophy until the next World Amateur Team Championship in October 2023. Members of the winning team receive gold medals; members of the second-place team receive silver medals; and members of the third-place teams receive bronze medals.

Although there is no official recognition, Sweden’s Ortengren, Germany’s Briem and the USA’s Zhang tied for the low individual score at 7-under-par 279. ►

Eisenhower Trophy – Day 4 recap

Teenager Marco Florioli's bogey-free 6-under-par 66 and a 3-under 68 from Pietro Bovari led Italy to the gold medal in the World Amateur Team Championship Saturday at Le Golf National. It was the country's first medal in 32 WATC appearances.

"The key point today is that I have seen our players winning without thinking about the results," said Italian captain Matteo Delpodio. "They were winners on the golf course. When you see players playing this way with this attitude, the results do not matter. What matters is that they played like champions."

Italy's 72-hole score of 31-under-par 541 was one stroke better than silver-medal winning Sweden and four better than the bronze medal winners from the USA.

In a tightly contested back nine, Italy and Sweden gained a slight separation from the field, but the par-5 14th hole proved to be pivotal because of the play of Florioli and Bovari.

Florioli was the first Italian player out and holed a chip shot on the 14th and Bovari followed with an eagle for a three-stroke gain on Sweden.

"I was feeling that I was going to make a birdie on that chip, and I made it," said Florioli, a 17-year-old from Bergamo. "I played the last four holes in par, par, par, par and that is a great final on this golf course." ►

Bovari, a college golfer at the University of Virginia, reached the 569-yard 14th with a 3-wood that stopped on the green, 70 feet from the hole.

“Sometimes it happens,” Bovari said of his eagle putt. “Today was one of those days. It went in the dead middle of the cup. I didn’t have the strength in me to yell. I put my arms up to celebrate.”

Italy’s Filippo Celli, the low amateur in the 2022 Open Championship, shot a non-counting 70.

“Florioli played so well on the back nine with a fantastic attitude,” said Delpodio. “He was under pressure, but he was making it so easy. Bovari had two big putts on 13 and 14. To win such a tournament there must be some magic. You cannot pre-plan everything. There must be some moments when you understand everything is coming together. I realised on 14 that it was our moment. I was pretty sure it was going to end with a victory.”

Italy is one of nine nations to participate in all 32 World Amateur Team Championships since 1958. Their previous best finishes were a tie for fourth in 2004 and 2008.

“I thought about playing my best golf and I think I did,” said Florioli. “I shot 6

Keita Nakajima
of Japan,

under bogey-free in the last round and I am proud of it. It is a memory forever because it is the first time for Italy in history. It’s a great feeling.”

Completing the top 10, Norway was fourth, its best-ever finish, Spain was fifth, France was sixth, Japan, the 18- and 36-hole leader was seventh, Austria and Wales shared eighth and Finland was 10th.

Italy receives custody of the Eisenhower Trophy until the next World Amateur Team Championship, in October of 2023.

Although there is no official recognition, Sweden’s Tobias Jonsson was the low individual with a score of 17-under 269, while Keita Nakajima of Japan became the first male golfer to win the Mark H. McCormack medal twice. ● countries have entered all 32 World Amateur Team Championships since its inception in 1958 – Bermuda, Brazil, Germany, Great Britain and Ireland (since 2002 – England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales), Italy, Japan, New Zealand, Sweden and the United States of America.

The low individual scorer for the Eisenhower Trophy was Tobias Jonsson from Sweden with a score of 269.

130

Japan's first round score of 130 was the second lowest in Eisenhower Trophy history.

No. 1

Keita Nakajima from Japan was the Mark H. McCormack medal winner as the No. 1 ranked player in the WAGR® in 2021 and 2022, becoming the first male to win the award twice.

31st

France played in its 31st World Amateur Team Championship; its only missed appearance was in 1962 in Japan. The French won the Eisenhower Trophy in 2010 and also won silver in 2002 and bronze in 1992 and 2012.

263

Jon Rahm of Spain holds the record for lowest individual 72-hole score at 263 in 2014.

World Amateur Team Championships UAE 2023

At its 2020 Biennial Meeting, the IGF National Federation (NF) members elected the Emirates Golf Federation (EGF) to host the 2023 WATC in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

However, in October 2022, the EGF presented the IGF with a proposal to move the Championships from Dubai to the National Course at Abu Dhabi Golf Club (ADGC). After receiving a revised operational plan for the delivery of the event in Abu Dhabi, the IGF determined that the National Course at the ADGC would provide the best experience for players and approved the venue change. In the short time since, the EGF and the IGF have forged a strong working relationship with the ADGC on the planning and preparation of the Championships. The IGF sincerely thanks the ADGC for the excellent conditioning of the course.

The WATC Competition Committee determined that the maximum field size for both the Eisenhower and Espirito Santo Trophies would be 36 teams. At its meeting in December 2022, the IGF Administrative Committee consequently approved the qualification criteria for the new 36-team format. With the objective of providing a strong and diverse field, the criteria provides for a minimum of three NF members from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania.

2023 marks the first year in the WATC's history that the Championships will ► be held in an odd year, to resolve the clash previously experienced with the Olympic Games and Youth Olympic Games. In another first, the order of play of the men's and women's championships will be reversed with the Eisenhower Trophy played in week one (18-21 October 2023), followed by the Espirito Santo Trophy in week two (25-28 October 2023). This avoids a conflict in dates with the 2023 Asia Pacific Amateur Championships and the final round of the LPGA Tour school.

The IGF thanks the Emirates Golf Federation for its outstanding preparation for the 2023 WATC and looks forward to witnessing two excellent championship weeks before crowning two very worthy winners. 🏆

Le Golf National, Paris, France

Olympic Games Paris 2024

Paris will host the XXXIII Olympic Summer Games from 26 July to 11 August 2024. The golf competitions will be held at the Albatross Course at Le Golf National, situated to the southwest of Paris, near Versailles.

Le Golf National has hosted the French Open since 1991, Ryder Cup in 2018 and World Amateur Team Championships in 1994 and 2022.

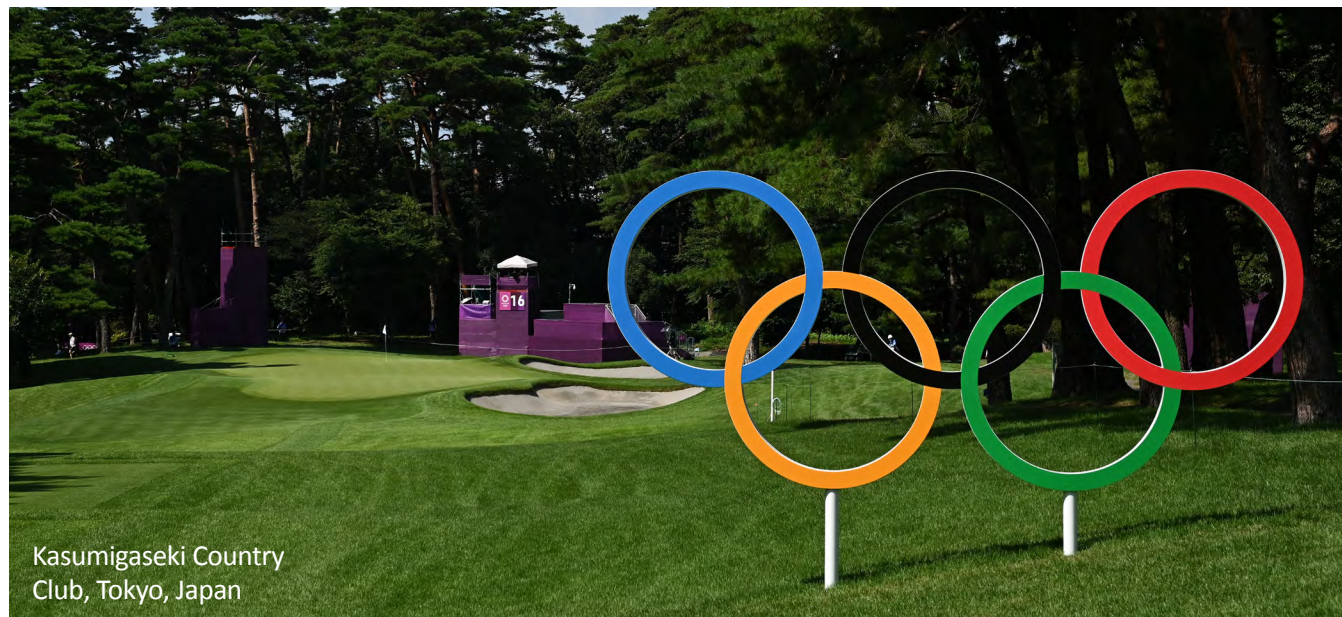

The course will be played as a par-71 for the men's event and a par-72 for the women's event, and the competition format will be 72-hole individual stroke play, with four rounds scheduled over four consecutive days. Medals will be awarded for first, second and third place to the lowest three individual finishers in each competition based on cumulative score after completion of the event. Any ties for the first, second or third place finishers will be determined by play-off(s) as necessary.

The Men's Event will take place from Thursday 1 August to Sunday 4 August, with the Women's Event scheduled for Wednesday 7 August to Saturday ►

10 August. Approximate tee times for all rounds will be 9:00am to 12.30pm in groups of three off the 1st tee only, barring weather or unforeseen circumstances.

Qualification

The Olympic field is restricted to 60 players for each of the men's and women's competitions. The IGF utilises the official world golf rankings to create the Olympic Golf Rankings as a method of determining eligibility. The top-15 world-ranked players are eligible for the Olympics, with a limit of four players from a given country. Beyond the top 15, players are eligible based on the world rankings, with a maximum of two eligible players from each country that does not already have two or more players among the top-15.

The end dates for the qualification period for men and women are 17 June and 24 June 2024 respectively.

Services

Athletes and caddies will be accommodated at the Olympic Village unless otherwise organised by their National Olympic Committee.

The Olympic Village will provide all necessary services (restaurants, gym, polyclinic, etc.), and recreational activities for the athletes, caddies, and team officials in a unique, comfortable and attractive environment, which is both safe and secure. ►

New Games Delivery Model

The IGF Consortium, consisting of the IGF, PGA TOUR, European Tour, and the French Golf Federation, has successfully accomplished its objective of securing the Paris 2024 Competition Delivery Entity Bid, allowing for the implementation of a new Games Delivery Model in accordance with the IOC's Olympic Agenda 2020 objectives. This innovative approach aims to optimise the utilisation of existing expertise specific to the sport, while ensuring effective planning and execution of the events. The award of the Bid has granted the IGF additional responsibility, enabling us to harness our vast wealth of knowledge and assume full accountability for delivering an exceptional field of play and an unforgettable Olympic golf competition for our athletes in 2024.

Test Event

The Paris 2024 Organising Committee and Omega/Swiss Timing held a scoring test event at the French Golf Federation Junior National Championships at Le Golf National at the end of July 2023.

We look forward to a highly successful Olympic Games golf competition in August 2024! 🏆

SIDNEY WOLF
(PUERTO RICO GOLF ASSOCIATION)

A total of 72 National Federation members attended the IGF Biennial meeting that was held on 29 August 2022 and voted Singapore Golf Association as host of the 2025 WATC and Royal Morocco Golf Federation as host for 2027.

2025 will see Singapore host the Championships for the first time, after the 2020 WATC that they were scheduled to host was cancelled due to COVID-19. It will also be the first time for Morocco to host the event, and only the second time the WATC has been held in Africa, the first time being in South Africa in 2006. ●

Multi-Sport Games - Asian Games 2023, Hangzhou

The Asian Games 2023 will be held from 23 September to 8 October in 2023 in Hangzhou, China.

Golf is one of 40 sports and 61 disciplines where an estimated 12,000 athletes from all 45 Asian Olympic committees will compete for 483 gold medals.

The golf competitions will be held at the West Lake International Golf Course and include men's and women's individual stroke play events and team events. A total of four gold medals will be contested. ●

Multi-Sport Games - Santiago 2023 Pan American Games

In March 2023, the Santiago 2023 Organising Committee for the Pan American Games changed the dates of the golf competition to directly clash with the WATC Espirito Santo Trophy. In early June, the IGF was informed that the dates had reverted to the original dates, which avoids this clash.

On 7 July, the IGF confirmed the National Federation members that had earned qualification places for the 2023 Pan American Games.

A total of 64 athletes (32 men and 32 women) will participate in the Games. Athletes must be professional golfers who are ranked within the top 2000 of their respective world golf rankings, or amateurs ranked in WAGR®, with a handicap index not exceeding 4.0. ●

Multi-Sport Games - Victoria 2026 Commonwealth Games

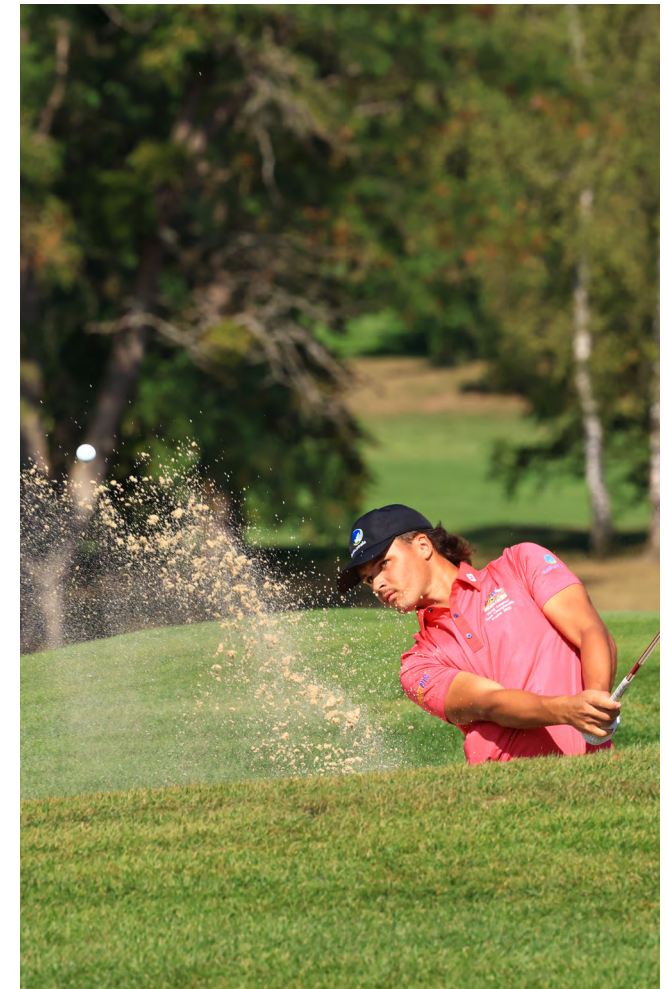

On 5 October 2022, the Commonwealth Games Federation (CGF) announced that golf will be admitted to the sport programme for the Victoria 2026 Commonwealth Games which will take place in Australia from 17-29 March 2026.

The sports programme includes 20 sports and 26 disciplines, including nine fully integrated Para sports.

Regrettably on 18 July 2023, the Victoria Government walked away from their agreement to host the 2026 Commonwealth Games due to the revised budget of $6 billion to host these Games being 50% more than those initially projected by the Organising Committee. These figures are attributed to price escalation primarily due to the unique regional delivery model that Victoria chose for these Games, and in particular relate to village and venue builds and transport infrastructure.

This is hugely disappointing for the IGF and the Commonwealth Sport Movement. The CGF is currently taking advice on the options available to them and are committed to finding a solution that is in the best interest of our athletes and the wider Commonwealth Sport Movement. ●

Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) Executive Board has confirmed the dates for the Youth Olympic Games Dakar 2026, from 31 October to 13 November 2026.

The IOC will consult each of the International Federations to review the disciplines, events and athlete quotas for Dakar 2026 by the end of 2023.

UAM University, located in Diamniadio, will host the Youth Olympic Village (YOV) where work has been progressing, with the first seven buildings planned to be used as part of the YOV already completed and equipped. ●

Olympic Games Los Angeles 2028

Golf was confirmed as part of the Initial Sports Programme of the Olympic Games Los Angeles 2028 (LA 2028), at the International Olympic Committee (IOC) Session in February 2022.

The Games will be held from 14-30 July 2028. The golf competition will take place at the prestigious Riviera Country Club.

The IGF has met with the LA 2028 Organising Committee three times and has commenced discussions on an agreement between LA 2028 and the IGF to oversee the overall event delivery, in addition to the sport competition delivery, for the Olympic Golf Event.

Sport disciplines and events for LA 2028 are yet to be finalised. The Discipline Framework and Final Sports Programme should be approved by the IOC Executive Board and IOC Session by the end of 2023.

LA 2028 expressed their support of the IGF proposal to add a men's and women's team event and provided input on how this can be achieved, which is currently being assessed by the Competitions Committee. ●

Olympic Games Brisbane 2032

Brisbane, Australia, was confirmed as the 2032 Olympic Games host at the International Olympic Committee (IOC) Session in Tokyo in July 2021.

The Olympic Games will be held from 23 July to 8 August 2032. It will be Australia's third opportunity to host the world's greatest sporting event, after the successes of Sydney 2000 and Melbourne 1956.

Royal Queensland Golf Club was confirmed as the 2032 Olympic Games host venue for golf in Brisbane.

The Brisbane 2032 Coordination Office was formally established in March 2023 to supervise the delivery of the Brisbane 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The office was created after studying arrangements for the Sydney 2000 and London 2012 Games and will be led by Graham Fraine, director of the regional development, manufacturing, and water department in the Queensland government. It was felt that the Coordination Office was the most suitable model for Brisbane because 84 per cent of the venues already exist and assets are to remain in public ownership.

Ms Cindy Hook was recently appointed the CEO of the Organising Committee having previously been the CEO of Deloitte Asia Pacific. It should be noted that Deloitte is an IOC TOP Partner through to 2032. ●

1. Activity

The International Golf Federation (IGF) is the world-wide Golf sports organisation, the headquarters of which are located in Lausanne, Switzerland.

The objectives of International Golf Federation are:

- a. to encourage the international development of the sport of golf;
- b. to foster friendship and sportmanship among the peoples of the world by organising biennially amateur team championships for the Eisenhower Trophy (for men) and the Espirito Santo trophy (for women);

- c. to promote golf as an Olympic sport; and
- d. to act as the International Federation for golf in the Olympic Games and thereby to establish and enforce, in accordance with the Olympic spirit, the rules concerning the playing of golf in the Olympic Games and to fulfil in respect of the sport of golf the mission and role of an International Federation within the Olympic Movement.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

2.1 Basis of accounting

IGF uses the accruals basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

2.2 Fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at acquisition cost. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost of the asset and the related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts. Any profit or loss on retirement is reflected in the earnings for the period.

2.3 Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated on the basis of the cost of the assets and on their estimated useful lives using the reducing balance method.

2.4 Deferred income

Any funds received for events to be held in the future, where reimbursement of these funds would be necessary in the case of event cancellation, are deferred in the balance sheet and not recognised ► as income until the event for which the funds were received has taken place.

2.5 Accounting for foreign currencies

The functional currency of IGF is the US Dollar. Assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than US Dollar are recorded based on exchange rates ruling at the year-end. Transactions denominated in currencies other than US Dollar are recorded at average rates for the year. All exchange losses and realised exchange gains are recognised in the statement of income and expenditure. ►
