1972 MEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

In a world fraught with tension and uneasiness, amateur golf, drawn together in 1958 by the World Amateur Golf Council, is fulfilling its purpose of fostering friendships and sportsmanship among all peoples through the World Amateur Team Championship.

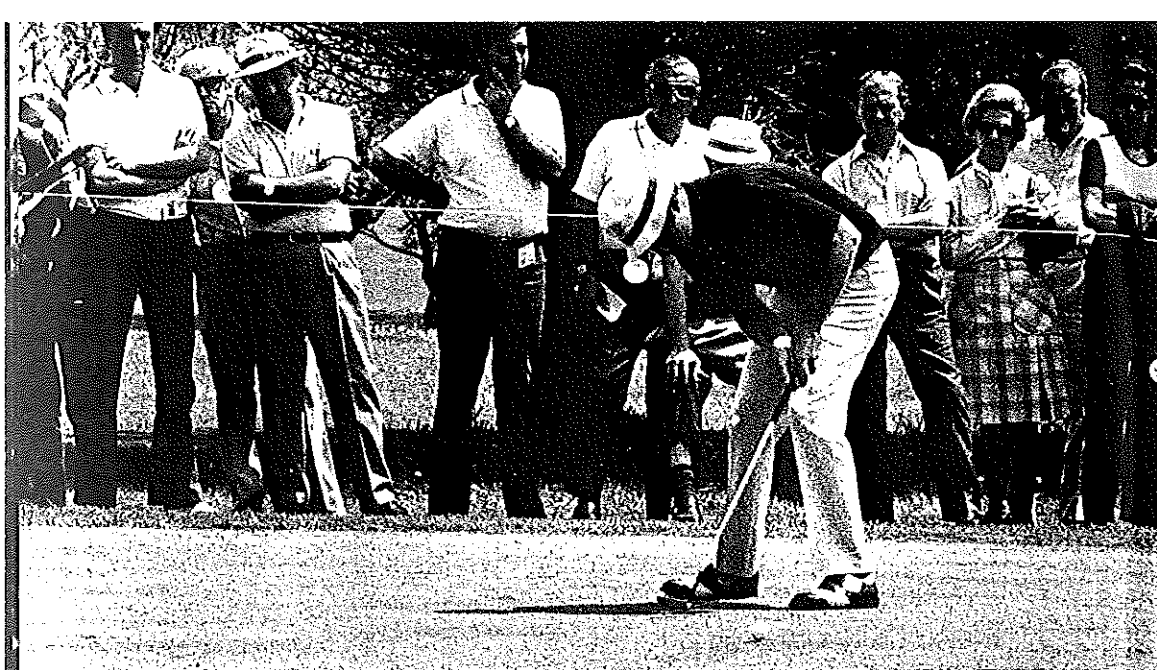

Victory, of course, is important to any true competitor, but more than victory, the initial purpose of the World Amateur Golf Council has remained paramount. Lasting friendships have been formed by many of the players through keen competition. Also important, the Council continues to grow; there are now 60 members, with the addition of Panama early in 1974.

The Eighth World Amateur Team Championship was held in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in October, 1972, at the Olivos Golf Club. Once again it was won by a team representing an English-speaking country—the United States. The record established by Australia, Great Britain and Ireland, and the United States in winning every Championship since its inception was still intact, but just barely. The progress made by some of the non-English-speaking countries—especially Spain, Argentina, and Japan—portends a healthy trend in International Golf.

Although the United States kept its own streak intact—it has now won the last three Championships—it was hard pressed; the final outcome was not decided until the last day. Fittingly enough, the host nation, Argentina, led after the first day's play, with a total of 212. Australia was second at 215, while the American Team was well back—nine strokes behind—at 221. The Australian Team, greatly aided by Anthony Gresham's 69, took the lead in the second round, while Argentina and Spain were tied for second, three strokes behind. The United States made up only two strokes and still trailed by a wide margin.

Seven strokes behind the leaders going into the third round, the United States climbed to within three strokes of the lead after 54 holes. Ben Crenshaw shot a 69, while Marvin (Vinny) Giles III, 1972 United States Amateur Champion, added a 70 and Mark Hayes scored 71 to give the Americans an aggregate score of 210 for the day. The United States then trailed Australia by three strokes with South Africa third.

On the final day Crenshaw, the first American on the course, shot a flawless 68 to give his Team the lift it needed. Giles virtually ensured victory for the Americans with a 71; and when Hayes, the last American on the course, finished with a conservative 75, the United States was assured of the victory. The Americans had a final score of 865; Australia was second at 870, and South Africa finished third at 878.

The Spanish Team, which was tied for second at the end of the second round, finished the Championship in fourth place, just one stroke back of South Africa. Spain had a chance to finish ahead of South Africa. Nicasio Sagardia, its last man on the course on the final day, needed a birdie on the par-5 18th hole, but he made 6 instead. Nevertheless, Spain became the first non-English-speaking nation ever to finish higher than fifth; prior to the 1972 Championship, Mexico had placed fifth in 1962-66-70 and Argentina was fifth in 1958. Argentina finished in a tie for fifth in 1972, matching New Zealand. Japan, which finished ninth, has shown remarkable consistency. The Japanese finished in 20th place in the first Championship, 16th in 1960, and then jumped up to ninth place in 1962. The next Championship saw the Japanese drop back to 24th place, but since 1964 they have been in either eighth or ninth place.

Because this is strictly a team competition, individual scores are not recognized officially, but the performance of Australia's Tony Gresham should be noted. He led the field with a 72-hole score of 285 on rounds of 70-69-73-73. Second best total of 287 was posted by both Ben Crenshaw and Marvin (Vinny) Giles III, of the United States. Crenshaw and Terrence Ross Gale, of Australia, each shot 68 in one round, the lowest 18-hole scores of the competition. Crenshaw also joined Giles and Hayes to score the best Team round—210—on the third day of play.

Delegates and Duffers Cup

The Delegates and Duffers Cup, which was made a feature of the Championship at the request of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, was won by Felipe de Osma, of Peru, with a 36-hole score of 141. Jorge Ledesma, President of the Argentina Golf Association, won low gross with 143. This event is restricted to delegates to the Council meeting and to non-playing Team Captains.

Ben Crenshaw and Giles each shot 287 for the 72 holes.

Meeting of World Council

At the biennial meeting of the World Amateur Golf Council, it was decided to hold the 1974 Championships for men and women at Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The 36-hole Royal Selangor Golf Club will be the site of the Championships, scheduled for October 23-26 (women) and October 30—November 2 (men).

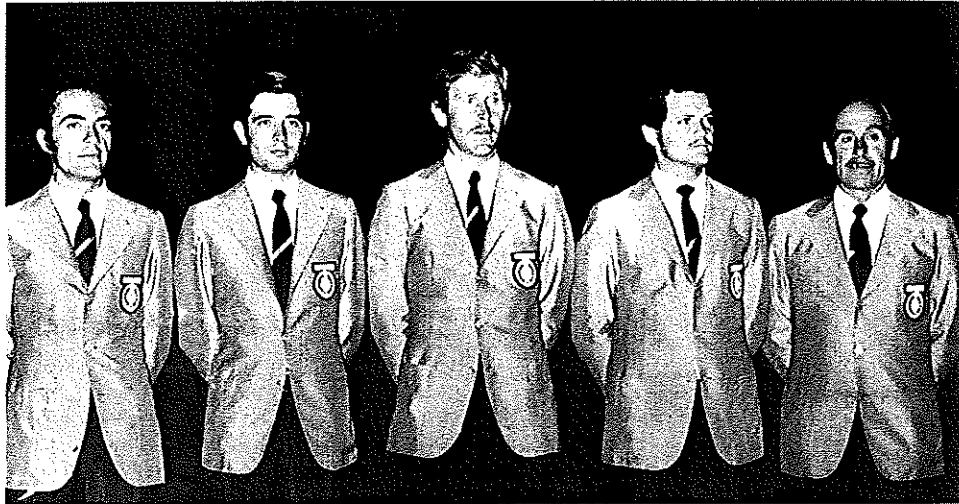

The Council also decided not to resume the World Senior Amateur Team Championship. The Senior Championship was first held in 1967 at the Pinehurst Country Club, Pinehurst, N.C., and again in 1969 at St. Andrews, Scotland. It was scheduled for Japan in 1971, but because of economic problems in that country it had to be cancelled.

1972 WOMEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

The United States won its fourth consecutive Championship at the Hindu Country Club, Buenos Aires, over Teams from 19 other nations. The Americans' combined team total—in which the two lowest scores of three players each day were counted—was 583, four strokes lower than France, the runnerup.

The United States led after the first round on a 68 by Mrs. Jane Bastanchury Booth, which equalled the course record, and a 72 by Miss Laura Baugh, the 1971 U.S. Women's Amateur Champion. The Americans led Canada by five strokes and Streit, playing for Canada in her third Championship, matched Mrs. Booth's 68. France was then 16 strokes off the lead.

The United States increased its lead to 13 strokes in the second round on a 72 by Miss Mary Budke and 73s by Miss Baugh and Mrs. Booth. Argentina and Sweden both advanced into a tie for second place, while the French Team fell further back, 18 strokes behind the leader.

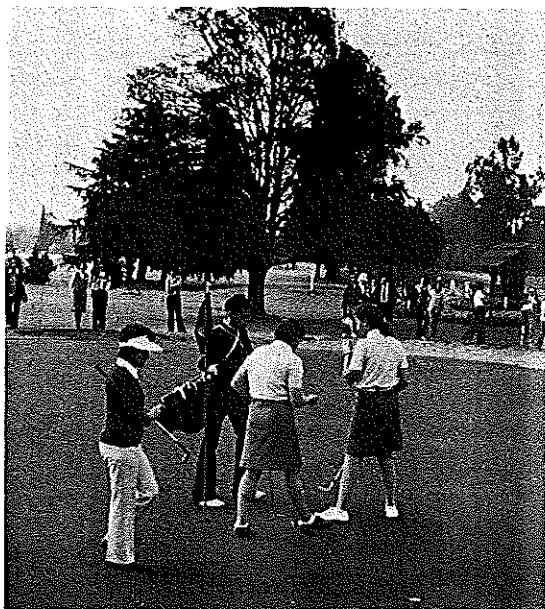

The third day of play saw a complete reversal in form by the Teams representing France and the United States. Mrs. Claudine Cros Rubin, who had played in all the ing the earlier rounds of Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Streit. Miss Brigitte Varangot added a one-under par 71 to give the French Team a total of 139, the lowest daily score of the Championship. The American girls, on the other hand, could do no better than a 76 and two 77s. In one round France had made up 14 strokes on the American Team and was in second place, just four strokes back. Sweden was third, seven strokes behind.

The United States rallied, however, on the final day and lost no more ground. Miss Baugh shot a 72 against 74 by Miss Anne Marie Palli of France, while Miss Budke had a 74 against Miss Varangot's 76 to clinch the Championship. Mrs. Rubin and Mrs. Booth, in the last group, waged a brilliant battle, realizing that the outcome might determine the entire Championship, but in the end their scores had no bearing on the final result. Mrs. Rubin finished with a fine 71, while Mrs. Booth had a 73. The United States had maintained its four-stroke lead over France and had retained custody of the Espirito Santo Trophy, presented in 1964 by Mrs. Espirito Santo Silva, of Portugal. France was second, Sweden third, and Australia fourth. Mrs. Booth, who played previously for the United States in 1968 and 1970, was low scorer with a 72-hole total of 291. She was one stroke under Mrs. Rubin and Mrs. Streit.

Mrs. Marlene Stewart Streit, in slacks, shot 292, for Canada.

Miss Laura Baugh represented the United States in her second International Match.

Mrs. Jane Bastanchury Booth shot 291, the lowest 72-hole score.

Expenses of the Council shall be limited to the following:

- (1) Insurance and maintenance of the Championship trophies;

All the players of each Team shall be eligible for all four rounds; disqualification of a player under the Rules of Golf in any round shall not be effective for any subsequent round unless the Administrative Committee determines otherwise.

In each 18-hole round, the total of the three lowest scores by players of each Team shall constitute the Team score for that round.

The Champion shall be the Team with the lowest such total score for 72 holes.

(c) If a tie for the Championship occurs, the Teams concerned shall play off at 18 holes stroke play, the exact day to be determined in advance by the Member Organization entertaining the Championship. ## ARTICLE XVI

Senior Amateur Team Championship

Section 1. General

The Council shall conduct a Senior Amateur Team Championship, open to Teams representing the Member Organizations.

Competitors shall be at least 55 years of age on the first day of the Championship.

All relevant provisions and principles of Articles IV, V, VI, VII and XII shall apply except as follows.

Section 2. Time

The Championship shall be conducted biennially in the Autumn, in alternate years from the Men's and Women's Championships. Specific dates should be subject to approval of the Administrative Committee.

Section 3. Place

(a) Each Member Organization will be invited to send a delegate to a meeting to be held during the Senior Championship to consider invitations to entertain the next Senior Championship. The recommendation of the delegates at this meeting shall be subject to approval of the Administrative Committee.

(b) Invitations to entertain the Senior Championship shall be submitted by Member Organizations to the Secretary at least three months in advance of the meeting of delegates.

Section 4. Form of Play

(a) Each Team shall consist of four players.

(b) The Championship shall consist of a 36-hole stroke play qualifying competition over two days, 18 holes on the first Championship day and 18 holes on the second Championship day, followed by two rounds of match play over two days in flights of 4.

(c) In each 18-hole qualifying round, the total of the three lowest scores by players of a Team shall constitute the Team's score for that round. The total of a Team's three-player scores for the two rounds shall be the Team's qualifying score.

(d) Teams shall be placed in flights for match play according to qualifying scores, with the four lowest-scoring Teams comprising the Championship Flight, the Teams in positions 5 through 8 comprising the Second Flight, and so on.

(e) In event of a tie for last place in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death playoff among all players of the tied Teams, with the three lowest scores by players of a Team constituting the Team's score for a hole. A tie for last place in any other flight shall be decided by lot.

(f) In each flight, Teams shall be numbered 1 through 4 based on qualifying scores. In event of a tie, Team numbers shall be decided by lot. In the first round of match play Team No. 1 shall play Team No. 3, and Team No. 2 shall play Team No. 4. In the second round of match play, the first-round winners shall play for first place and the first-round losers shall play for third place. Prizes shall be awarded to each member of the first, second and third place Teams in each flight.

(g) The winner of a match shall be determined as follows: Prior to each match, each Team Captain shall present to the Committee by a specified time his Team's line-up, i.e., a list of his players numbered 1 through 4. The No. 1 players of two opposing Teams shall play an 18-hole match for one point, the No. 2 players shall play for a point, and so on. In event of a tied match, each player shall be awarded ½ point. The Team with the most points shall be the winner.

(h) In event of a tie between two opposing Teams in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death playoff among all players of both teams, i.e., the first Team "up" after a hole shall be the winner. For example, if the No. 1 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 1 player of Team B, the No. 2 player of Team B wins the first extra hole from the No. 2 player of Team A, the No. 3 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 3 player of Team B and the No. 4 players of the two teams halve the first extra hole, Team A would be the winner. Ties in other flights shall be decided on a margin-of-victory basis. If the opposing Teams are also tied on a margin-of-victory basis, there shall be a sudden-death playoff as in the Championship Flight. The winner on a margin-of-victory basis is the Team with the highest figure when the margin-of-victory figures of its winning players are totaled. For example, if players No. 1 and 3 of Team A win by 4-2 and 2-1 and players No. 2 and 4 of Team B win by 3-2 and 2-1, Team A would be the winner as the total of its margin-of-victory figures is 9 (4+2+2+1) compared with 8 (3+2+2+1) for Team B.

(i) All matches in a given flight will tee off in immediate succession. If necessary, play shall be in groups of four, i.e., the No. 1 players of two opposing Teams would play their match concurrently with the No. 2 players of the same Teams. They would be followed immediately by the No. 3 and 4 players of the same Team.

(j) If the total number of Teams entered is divisible by 4, each flight shall comprise four Teams. If the total is not divisible by 4, the following schedule will be used. In flights of less than four Teams, bye(s) shall be used for the last place(s):

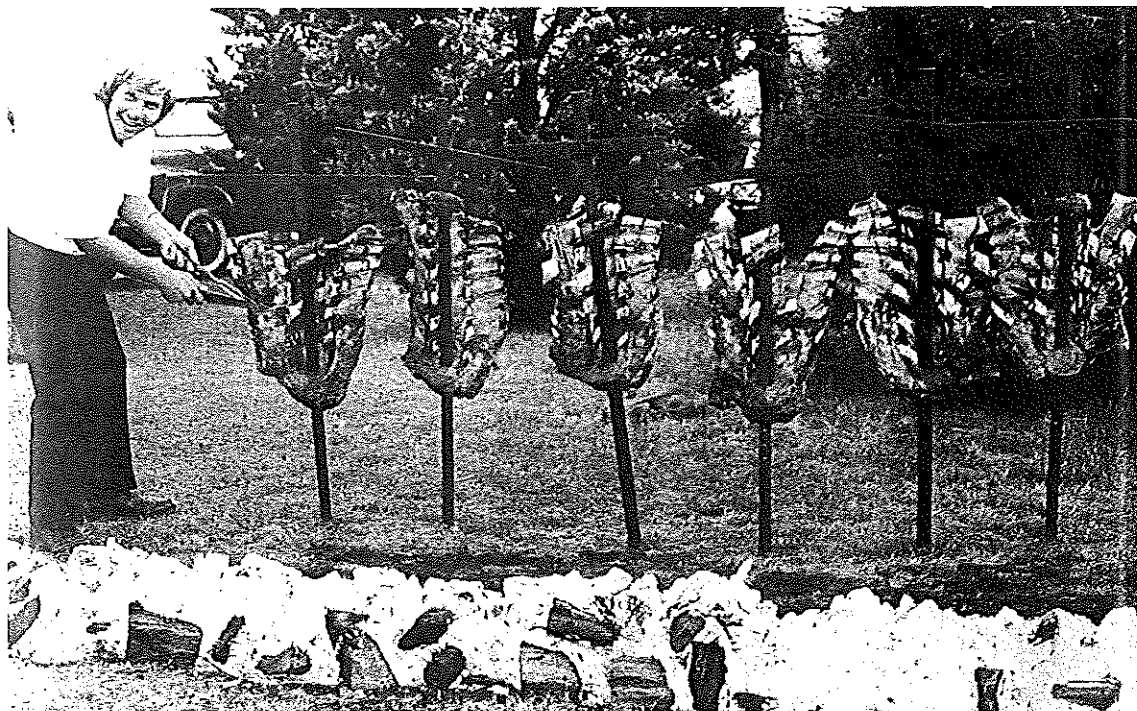

No. of Teams in Each Flight Entered	(Championship Flight Listed First, Etc.)
9	4 - 3 - 2
10	4 - 4 - 2
11	4 - 4 - 3
13	4 - 4 - 3 - 2
14	4 - 4 - 4 - 2
15	4 - 4 - 4 - 3
17	4 - 4 - 4 - 3 - 2
18	4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 2
19	4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 3

Section 5. Prizes

The Shun Nomura Trophy, presented to the Council by friends of golf in Japan through the Japan Golf Association, shall be held for the ensuing biennium by the Member Organization whose Team is the winner.

In the event of abandonment of the Senior Amateur Team Championship, such use or other disposition of the Shun Nomura Trophy shall be made as the Japan Golf Association may in its discretion determine.

The Argentine Golf Association arranged for barbecued ribs of beef at a farewell party for participants in the World Amateur Team Championships for both men and women.
