1974 MEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

The concept of a truly world wide Championship, for which this event was devised, manifested itself in 1974 when for the first time non-English-speaking teams finished among the leading three scorers in the ninth biennial World Amateur Team Championship at Campo de Golf, Cajuiles, La Romana, Dominican Republic. The United States again won, followed by Japan and Brazil in that order.

It is equally important to note that the six leading teams represented the six populated continents of the Earth:

United States	888
Japan	898
Brazil	901
South Africa	908
Australia	916
Great Britain-Ireland	922

This was the fourth consecutive victory for the United States, but the 1974 Championship represented a remarkable advance for both Japan and Brazil. Japan never before had finished higher than eighth, while Brazil's best previous finish was 15th place in 1972. In 1958, the first year for the World Amateur Team Championship, Japan and Brazil finished in 20th and 21st place, respectively.

George Burns III, of the winning United States Team, is congratulated by Gary Koch while his other team-mates, Jerry Pate and Curtis Strange, in cap, beam approvingly.

sity. Gonzalez tied Jerry Pate, of the United States, for the low individual score at 294 for the 72 holes.

The United States led every round and increased its lead every day. Pate led the United States the first day with a score of 73, one above par. George Burns added 74 and Curtis Strange a 77, and when the round ended the Americans held a slim one-stroke lead over Brazil, 224-225. Gonzalez and Jose Diniz both shot 73s, while Ricardo Rossi and Rafael Navarro both scored 79s for Brazil. At that stage Japan was in third position at 226, and both Great Britain and South Africa were threatening at 227. South Africa remained in contention until the end, but a score of 233 in the second round ended the hopes of Great Britain and Ireland.

South Africa moved into second place the second day with a cumulative total of 450 after a round score of 223. The United States, meanwhile, had 221 and then led by five strokes with a total of 445. Gary Koch, whose opening round 79 was not counted in the first day's totals, shot 70 in the second round for the United States, one of four 70s in the course of the four days. Japan at that time was in third place at 452, and Brazil was two strokes further back at 454.

In the third round both Japan and the United States had team totals of 219, and Japan took over second place at 671 behind the 664 of the United States. South Africa had 225, but it was passed by Japan and caught by Brazil, with 221. Brazil and South Africa were tied at 675. Burns, Ginjiro Nakabe, of Japan, and Diniz, of Brazil, had 70s in this round.

The weather had been calm throughout the first three days, but the wind began to blow on the morning of the last round and rain fell steadily. Under these conditions, Satoshi Yamazaki, of Japan, shot a one-under-par 71 early in the day, and the once comfortable appearing seven stroke lead enjoyed by the United States was cut to one bare stroke. In the afternoon Jerry Pate matched Yamazaki's round, leading the United States to a closing 224. Brazil picked up one stroke on Japan, with 226 against Japan's 227, but it was not enough. South Africa had a disappointing final round of George Burns, of the United States, hits a delicate shot from the fringe. On the third day, Burns shot one of the four 70s scored in the four-day competition.

Delegates and Duffers Cup

The Delegates and Duffers Cup is a 36-hole handicap competition restricted to Delegates to the meetings of the World Amateur Golf Council and to non-playing Captains of teams competing in the Men's Championship. It was made a part of the Championship at the request of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Enrique Samper, of Colombia, won with a net score of 148. K. W. Stephen,

Meeting of World Council

The World Amateur Golf Council amended its Articles to provide that representatives of every Member Organization must be able to enter the country of a Member Organization whose invitation is accepted for a World Championship. This amendment was proposed and adopted after the site of the 1974 Championship was changed because of the inability of all Members to compete in Malaysia.

The Council also voted to increase the Administrative Committee from nine to eleven members, agreed to keep the World Senior Amateur Team Championship in a state of suspension, and accepted an offer from the Dominican Golf Association to donate a trophy for a Delegates and Duffers competition for the Women's Division.

The following Delegates were present:

1974 WOMEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

Cajuiles Golf Club was a very severe course for the Women's Championship. Of the 65 women who played, representing 22 countries, only Cynthia Hill, of the United States, scored lower than 80 in each of the four rounds. Miss Hill had scores of 76, 79, 79 and 73 for a 72-hole score of 307, the lowest total by seven strokes. Miss Deborah Massey, Miss Hill's team-mate, had 314, the second lowest 72-hole score.

The United States won by 16 strokes with a final score of 620. Great Britain and Ireland were tied with South Africa for second place at 636, followed by Australia, at 637.

This was the fifth consecutive Women's Championship won by the United States, and its 16-stroke margin of victory was the largest since the competi-vious margin was nine strokes in 1966 when the United States won over Canada.

Italy took the lead in the first round on a 78 by Federica Dassu and an 81 by Marina Ciaffi Ragher, giving the team a 159 total. The United States was tied at this stage with Great Britain and Ireland and France; all three had scores of 160. At the end of the second round the United States had a four-stroke lead over Italy. Debbie Massey shot 72 and both Miss Hill and Carol Semple shot 79s, giving the U.S. a team score of 151 for the round (only the two best count toward the team total). Italy had a score of 156 for the day and a two-day total of 315 against 311 by the United States.

It was clear at the end of the third round that the United States would win, but by then the race for second place was becoming tight. The United States had a 10-stroke lead at this point with a total of 467, but Great Britain and Ireland had caught Italy and they were tied at 477.

Miss Hill saved her best round for the last day, shot 73 and combined with Miss Semple to give the United States a daily score of 153 and a final total of 620. Great Britain and Ireland finished with 159 for 636 and South Africa caught them with a closing 154, led by Alison Sheard, who shot 74. The Italian team had a bad day, slipped to 163 for the day and fell to sixth place at the end.

Mrs. Catherine Lacoste de Prado, of France, had the low single round of the Championship, a 71 in the last round.

Section 5. Duties of Women's Committee

The Women's Committee shall conduct the affairs of the Women's Division, subject to directions of the Council, and shall advise the Council on matters relative to the Women's Amateur Team Championship. Matters of policy shall be determined by the Council.

ARTICLE XVI

Senior Amateur Team Championship

Section 1. General

The Council shall conduct a Senior Amateur Team Championship, open to Teams representing the Member Organizations.

Competitors shall be at least 55 years of age on the first day of the Championship.

All relevant provisions and principles of Articles IV, V, VI, VII and XII shall apply except as follows.

Section 2. Time

The Championship shall be conducted biennially in the Autumn, in alternate years from the Men's and Women's Championships. Specific dates should be subject to approval of the Administrative Committee.

Section 3. Place

(a) Each Member Organization will be invited to send a delegate to a meeting to be held during the Senior Championship to consider invitations to entertain the next Senior Championship. The recommendation of the delegates at this meeting shall be subject to approval of the Administrative Committee.

(b) Invitations to entertain the Senior Championship shall be submitted by Member Organizations to the Secretary at least three months in advance of the meeting of delegates.

Section 4. Form of Play

(a) Each Team shall consist of four players.

(b) The Championship shall consist of a 36-hole stroke play qualifying competition over two days, 18 holes on the first Championship day and 18 holes on the second Championship day, followed by two rounds of match play over two days in flights of 4.

(c) In each 18-hole qualifying round, the total of the three lowest scores by players of a Team shall constitute the Team's score for that round. The total of a Team's three-player scores for the two rounds shall be the Team's qualifying score.

(d) Teams shall be placed in flights for match play according to qualifying scores, with the four lowest-scoring Teams comprising the Championship Flight, the Teams in positions 5 through 8 comprising the Second Flight, and so on.

(e) In event of a tie for last place in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death play-off among all players of the tied Teams, with the three lowest scores by players of a Team constituting the Team's score for a hole. A tie for last place in any other flight shall be decided by lot.

(f) In each flight, Teams shall be numbered 1 through 4 based on qualifying scores. In event of a tie, Team numbers shall be decided by lot. In the first round of match play Team No. 1 shall play Team No. 3, and Team No. 2 shall play Team No. 4. In the second round of match play, the first-round winners shall play for first place and the first-round losers shall play for third place. Prizes shall be awarded to each member of the first, second and third place Teams in each flight.

(g) The winner of a match shall be determined as follows: Prior to each match, each Team Captain shall present to the Committee by a specified time his Team's line-up, i.e., a list of his players numbered 1 through 4. The No. 1 players of two opposing Teams shall play an 18-hole match for one point, the No. 2 players shall play for a point, and so on. In event of a tied match, each player shall be awarded 1/2 point. The team with the most points shall be the winner.

(h) In event of a tie between two opposing Teams in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death play-off among all players of both teams, i.e., the first Team "up" after a hole shall be the winner. For example, if the No. 1 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 1 player of Team B, the No. 2 player of Team B wins the first extra hole from the No. 2 player of Team A, the No. 3 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 3 player of Team B and the No. 4 players of the two teams halve the first extra hole, Team A would be the winner. Ties in other flights shall be decided on a margin-of-victory basis. If the opposing Teams are also tied on a margin-of-victory basis, there shall be a sudden-death play-off as in the Championship Flight. The winner on a margin-of-victory basis is the Team with the highest figure when the margin-of-victory figures of its winning players are totaled. For example, if players No. 1 and 3 of Team A win by 4-2 and 2-1 and players No. 2 and 4 of Team B win by 3-2 and 2-1, Team A would be the winner as the total of its margin-of-victory figures is 9 (4+2+2+1) compared with B (3+2+2+1) for Team B.

(i) All matches in a given flight will tee off in immediate succession. If necessary, play shall be in groups of four, i.e., the No. 1 players of two opposing Teams would play their match concurrently with the No. 2 players of the same Teams. They would be followed immediately by the No. 3 and 4 players of the same Teams.

(j) If the total number of Teams entered is divisible by 4, each flight shall comprise four Teams. If the total is not divisible by 4, the following schedule will be used. In flights of less than four

Teams, bye(s) shall be used for the last place(s):

Teams Entered	No. of Teams in Each Flight (Championship Flight Listed First, Etc.)
9	4-3-2
10	4-4-2
11	4-4-3
13	4-4-3-2

15	4-4-4-3
17	4-4-4-3-2
