1976 MEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

It seems that each time the nations of the world meet in the World Amateur Team Championship, we see once again the universality of the game. In the 1976 Championship, played at the Penina Golf Club, in Portimao, Portugal, for example, the 10 leading teams represented five continents. Three teams came from Europe, including Great Britain and Ireland, the Champion, two each from Asia, Africa, and North America, and Australia. Only South America was missing, and that was by one place. Argentina finished 11th.

This is, after all, the purpose behind the formation of the World Amateur Golf Council and the reason why the Team Championship is played — to bring together the peoples of the world through golf.

Leading amateur golfers of the world have been coming together for this event every other year since 1958, and until 1974, none but an English-speaking nation played well enough to finish among the leading three. In 1974, however, only the United States, among the English-speaking nations, was among the leading three. Japan and Brazil were next, and the six leaders each were from a different continent.

Miss Donna Horton, Miss Nancy Lopez, Miss Deborah Massey

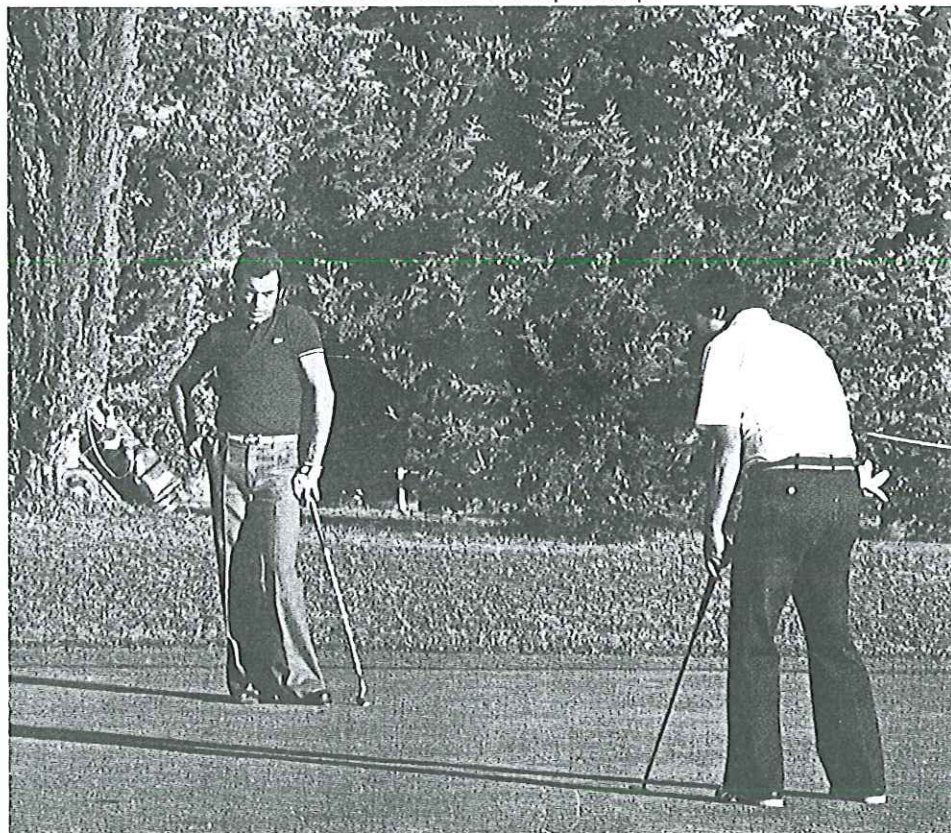

Christopher Bonython helped Australia to a third place finish.

In 1976 Japan once again was second, behind Great Britain and Ireland, and followed by Australia. China finished fourth and the United States fifth, its lowest finish ever. It is clear from these developments that the level of golf is rising steadily worldwide.

Japan has made remarkable improvement. Until 1974 it had never been higher than eighth; in 1974 it finished second, 10 strokes behind the United States, and in 1976 it was only two strokes behind Great Britain and Ireland. Great Britain and Ireland had a score of 892, Japan had 894, and Australia was another three strokes further back at 897.

Golfers from 38 lands came together for one week in Portugal in the 10th World Amateur Team Championship.

It is also worth noting that two of the leading four individual scorers were from Asia. T.M. Chen, of the Republic of China, shot rounds of 75, 69, 73, and 76, for 293, tied with Ian C. Hutcheon, of Great Britain and Ireland. Hutcheon shot 73-73-76-71—293. Chen's 69 was the lowest single round of the competition. Masahiro Kuramoto led the Japanese team with 75-71-75-73—294, and was tied with Phil Wood of Australia. Wood shot 76-70-76-72—294.

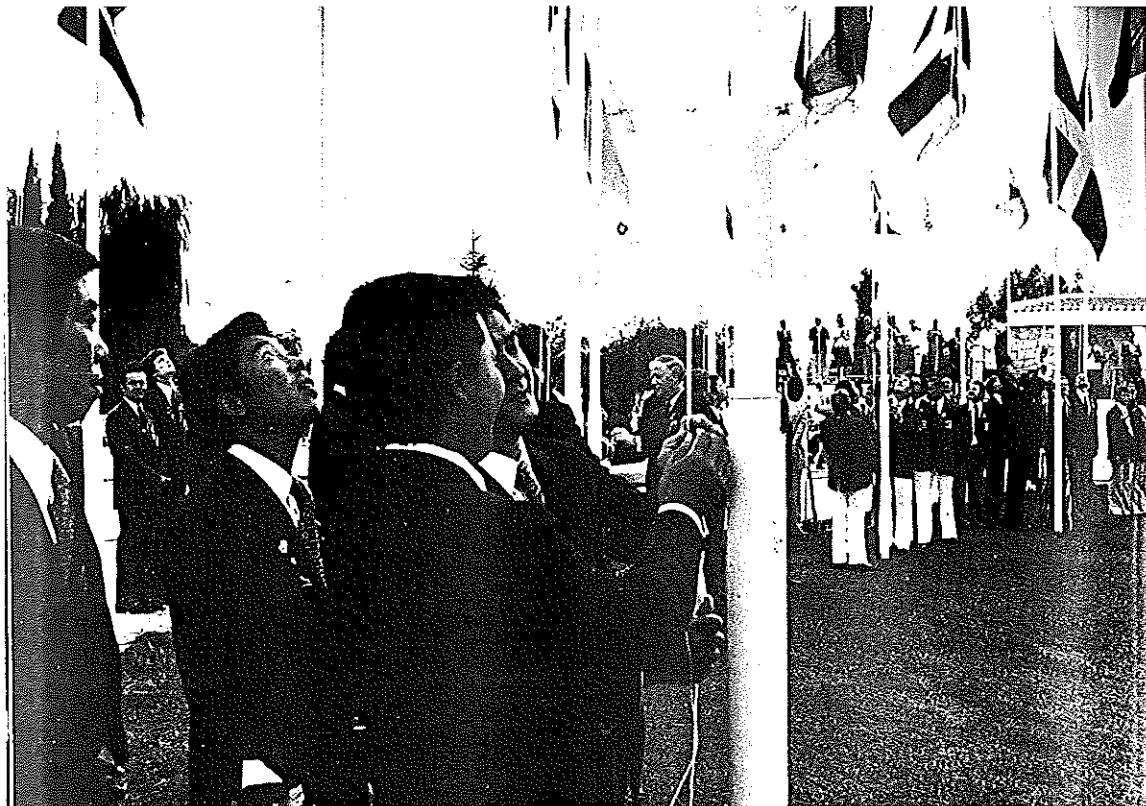

In the Team Championship itself, Great Britain-Ireland had at least a tie for the lead in every round. South Africa shared the first round lead at 219, with Sweden and Rhodesia next at 223. David Suddards led South Africa with 71 while Michael Kelley shot 72 for Great Britain-Ireland.

had team totals of 224 in the second round and once again shared the lead, with 443. Japan moved into contention with 220, behind a 71 by Kuramoto, and it was then four strokes behind the co-leaders, at 447. Three strokes further back came Australia and the Republic of China, behind Chen's 69.

The British and Irish team took a clear two-stroke lead after the third round, even though its team total for the day shot up to 225. South Africa, with three of its players scoring in the 80s dropped well off the pace at 682, which was 14 strokes behind Great Britain and Ireland, which had 668. Japan, Australia, and the United States shared second place at 670.

The United States had 217, the best single round team total of the competition. Fred Ridley shot 70, Richard L. Siderowf 72, and Bill

The next day Great Britain and Ireland shot 224, behind Hutcheon's 71, and won the Championship. Japan also had 224, but Australia slipped to 227, and the United States fell well behind with 231.

This was the second Championship for Great Britain and Ireland in the series. It won before in 1964. The United States has won six times, and Australia also has won twice. These are the only winners.

Thirty-eight teams competed, the most ever.

Delegates and Duffers Cup

The Delegates and Duffers Cup was won by Jorge Ledesma, of Argentina, with a net score of 145. H. G. MacLaine, of Great Britain, and Alvaro A. Alonso, of Spain, tied for second at 150. The women's competition was won by Mrs. Vera Lennox, of Portugal, with 69. Miss Yoshiko Kosaka, of Japan, was second with 72.

1976 WOMEN'S WORLD TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

Just as the level of golf in the men's competition seems to be rising, so does it seem for the Women's World Amateur Team Championship. In 1974 only Cynthia Hill, of the United States, scored lower than 80 in each of the four rounds. In 1976, however, three players were below 80 in every round. They were Miss Nancy Lopez, of the United States, who scored 72-75-73-77—297; Mrs. Catherine Lacoste de Prado, of France, with 76-77-75-79—307; and Mrs. Liv Wollin, of Sweden, with lowest individual total of the Championship. Even though other nations continue to make advances, the United States continues to dominate the competition. The first Women's Championship was played informally in 1964, and France won. Following that competition, the World Amateur Golf Council formed its Women's Division and assumed responsibility for the conduct of the Women's Championship. The six Championships that have been played since then have all been won by the United Nancy Lopez led the American women to their sixth successive victory.

The 1976 competition was played at the Vilamoura Golf Club, Algarve, Portugal. The United States had a team total of 605; France was second with 622, followed by Brazil, at 626, then Italy, at 635.

Of course the United States had a particularly strong team. The Misses Nancy Lopez, Debbie Massey, and Donna Horton, who comprised the American team, all subsequently be-

The 1976 Championship was between the United States and France throughout the four rounds, with the United States building its lead steadily. Miss Lopez' 72, the lowest single round of the competition, combined with the 80 of Miss Massey to give the United States a team score of 152. France had 154. Italy and the Republic of China shared third place at 157, five strokes behind the leader.

The next day the United States extended its lead to seven strokes with another team total of 152 on 75 by Miss Lopez and 77 by Miss Massey. This gave the United States a 36-hole score of 304 against 311 by France. By then Italy and South Africa were tied for third at 316, with Canada another stroke behind at 317.

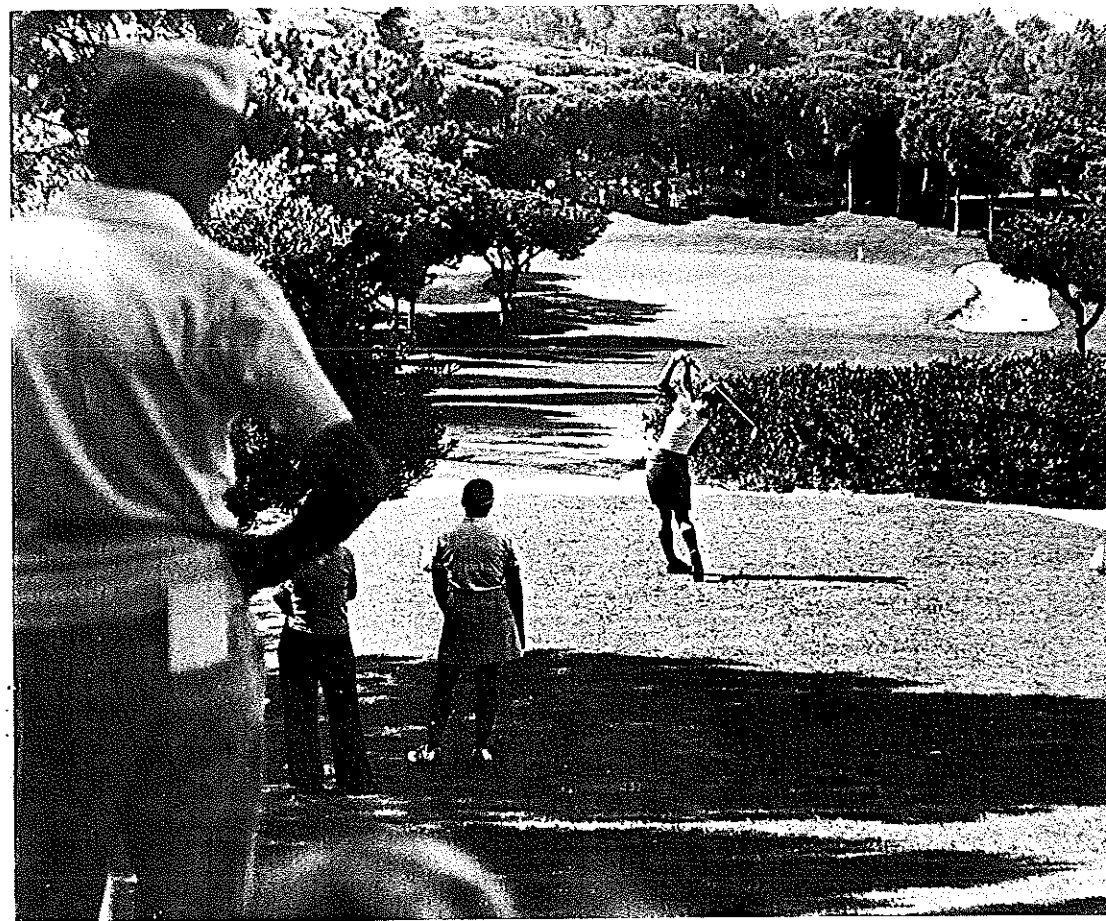

The United States added another two strokes to its lead in the third round and then led France by nine, 451-460, even though France had its best one-round score of the competition. Mrs. de Prado shot 75 and Miss Anne Marie Palli shot 74, giving France 149 for the day. However, Miss Lopez shot 73 and Miss Massey 74, and the United States had 147.

In the last round the United States simply pulled away, scoring 154 on 77s by Miss Lopez and Miss Horton against 162 for France. Brazil also shot 154 and moved into third place ahead of Italy.

Twenty-five nations competed, the most since 1964 when, again, 25 countries participated.

Marie Christine Ubald-Bocquet, of France, plays to the sixth green at the Vilamoura Golf Club.

Section 1. General

The Council shall conduct a Senior Amateur Team Championship, open to Teams representing the Member Organizations.

Competitors shall be at least 55 years of age on the first day of the Championship.

All relevant provisions and principles of Articles IV, V, VI, VII and XII shall apply except as follows.

Section 3. Place

(a) Each member Organization will be invited to send a Delegate to a meeting to be held during the Senior Championship to consider invitations to entertain the next Senior Championship. The recommendation of the Delegates at this meeting shall be subject to approval of the Administrative Committee.

(b) Invitations to entertain the Senior Championship shall be submitted by Member Organizations to the Secretary at least three months in advance of the meeting of Delegates.

Section 4. Form of Play

(a) Each Team shall consist of four players.

(b) The Championship shall consist of a 36-hole stroke play qualifying competition over two days, 18 holes on the first Championship day and 18 holes on the second Championship day, followed by two rounds of match play over two days in flights of 4

the three lowest scores by players of a Team shall constitute the Team's score for that round. The total of a Team's three-player scores for the two rounds shall be the Team's qualifying score.

(d) Teams shall be placed in flights for match play according to qualifying scores, with the four lowest-scoring Teams comprising the Championship Flight, the Teams in positions 5 through 8 comprising the Second Flight, and so on.

(e) In event of a tie for last place in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death play-off among all players of the tied Teams, with the three lowest scores by players of a Team constituting the Team's score for a hole. A tie for last place in any other flight shall be decided by lot.

(f) In each flight, Teams shall be numbered 1 through 4 based on qualifying scores. In event of a tie, Team numbers shall be decided by lot. In the first round of match play Team No. 1 shall play Team No. 3, and Team No. 2 shall play Team No. 4. In the second round of match play, the first-round winners shall play for first place and the first-round losers shall play for third place. Prizes shall be awarded to each member of the first, second and third place Teams in each flight.

(g) The winner of a match shall be determined as follows: Prior to each match, each Team Captain shall present to the Committee by a specified time his Team's line-up, i.e., a list of his players numbered 1 through 4. The No. 1 players of two opposing Teams shall play an 18-hole match for one point, the No. 2 players shall play for a point, and so on. In event of a tied match, each player shall be awarded ½ point. The team with the most points shall be the winner.

(h) In event of a tie between two opposing Teams in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death play-off among all players of both teams, i.e., the first Team "up" after a hole shall be the winner. For example, if the No. 1 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 1 player of Team B, the No. 2 player of Team B wins the first extra hole from the No. 2 player of Team A, the No. 3 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 3 player of Team B and the No. 4 players of the two teams have the first extra hole, Team A would be the winner. Ties in other flights shall be decided on a margin-of-victory basis. If the opposing Teams are also tied on a margin-of-victory basis, there shall be a sudden-death play-off as in the Championship Flight. The winner on a margin-of-victory basis is the Team with the highest figure when the margin-of-victory figures of its winning players are totaled. For example, if players No. 1 and 3 of Team A win by 4-2 and 2-1 and players No. 2 and 4 of Team B win by 3-2 and 2-1, Team A would be the winner as the total of its margin-of-victory figures is 9 (4+2+2+1) compared with 8 (3+2+2+1) for Team B.

(i) All matches in a given flight will tee off in immediate succession. If necessary, play shall be in groups of four, i.e., the No. 1 players of two opposing the No. 2 players of the same Teams. They would be followed immediately by the No. 3 and 4 players of the same Teams.

(j) If the total number of Teams entered is divisible by 4, each flight shall comprise four Teams. If the total is not divisible by 4, the following schedule will be used. In flights of less than four Teams, bye(s) shall be used for the last place(s):

Teams Entered	No. of Teams in Each Flight (Championship Flight Listed First, Etc.)
9	4-3-2
10	4-4-2
11	4-4-3
13	4-4-3-2
14	4-4-4-2
15	4-4-4-3
