With the northern peaks of the Andes as a backdrop, Lagunita Country Club in Caracas was the site of the Men's and Women's World Amateur Team Championships.

The 1986 Men's Championship

With 39 teams having played in the 15th World Amateur Team Championship, in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1986, and 27 in the 11th Women's World Amateur Team Championship the preceding week, the competitions approach the last decade of the 20th century with increased vigor. Only once before had so many teams competed in the men's championship, and the women's event had attracted more teams only once before. Thirty-nine teams played in the men's event at Pinehurst, North Carolina, in 1980, and 29 in the women's championship.

The championships, particularly the men's, have become so popular that a proposal to limit the size of the field to 36 teams was put before the last meeting of the World Amateur Golf Council. While it was rejected, that the issue was raised at all emphasizes the continuing growth of the game throughout the world.

While so many teams and players cause inconvenience to scheduling starting times—in each of the last two men's championships the field had to be split in two, with half beginning from the first tee, the other half from other points—supporters of the championships are encouraged by the size of the fields. They emphasize that the game is growing throughout the world, one of the objectives the founders hoped to achieve when they organized the World Amateur Golf Council, in Washington, D.C., in the spring of 1958.

The 1986 men's championship was won by Canada, with a four-round total score of 838, three strokes better than the United States, which finished second. China placed third, with 849, and Sweden was fourth, with 858.

This was Canada's first victory in the 14 championships it has entered (the Canadian did not enter in 1982), but it has never been out of the first 10, placed lower than sixth only twice, and came in second three times. Even with such a strong record, the Canadians had threatened to win only once before, when they came within two strokes of Great Britain and Ireland in 1964. Canada had also been second to the United States by eight strokes in 1984, and by 13 in 1978.

After the first 18 holes, the United States seemed on its way to regaining the championship after having lost it to Japan two years earlier. Behind the 66 of Jay Sigel, the United States raced to a four-stroke lead over Canada, with 204 against the Canadians' 208.

The Americans didn't play to that level again, although they held onto the lead through the next two rounds. Led by Bob Lewis' 69, Sigel's 70, and 71 by Buddy Alexander, the U.S. Amateur champion, they shot 210 the next day, which Canada matched, and then the Canadians picked up a stroke in the third round, when Mark Brewer shot his second 69, Warren Sye shot 71, and Brent Franklin 72. With one round to play, then, the United States led by three strokes, with 627 for 54 holes to Canada's 630. China was five strokes farther behind Canada.

The Canadians won with a strong closing round of 208, their second best of the four days, while the United States slipped to 214, their worst. Franklin, the last man out for the Canadians, sped home with 68, Brewer shot his third consecutive 69, and Sye had 71. Both Sigel and Alexander had 71s for the Americans, and Lewis shot 72.

Behind a 69 by Lin Chie-Hsiang, China held onto third place, finishing with 849, eight strokes behind the Americans, and nine strokes ahead of Sweden, fourth with 858.

While this is strictly a team competition that offers no prizes for individual accomplishments, it is only fair to applaud the fine play of Eduardo Herrera, a young Colombian who shot 275, the week's lowest 72-hole score. Carelessly four-putting the 18th green in the first round, Herrera shot 75, but then followed with 67, 68, and a final 65, finishing two strokes ahead of both Franklin and Sigel, who had 277s. With 279, Hsieh Chin-Sheng, of China, had the only other score under 280.

With rounds of 70-69-69-69—277, Mark Brewer led Canada to its first Championship. Prior to 1986, the Canadian Team's best finish had been second place in 1962, 1984 and 1978.

Delegates and Duffers Cup

B.J. Ingham of Bermuda and Joao Mendinga of Portugal were the winners of the men's division of the Delegates and Duffers Cup Competition, and Claudia Rorholdt of Switzerland won the Women's Division. The Delegates and Duffers Cup is a handicap competition for delegates to the meetings of the World Amateur Golf Council and for non-playing captains of teams competing in the championships.

The Delegates and Duffers Cup was played at Valle Arriba Golf Club in Caracas, Venezuela.

Ingham and Mendinga, who carry 5 and 7 handicaps, respectively, scored 42 points each in the Stableford competition. Felix Martinez of Venezuela placed third with 39 points.

Mrs. Rorholt, an 8-handicapper, scored 36 points to win the Women's Division. Barbara Rosner of Germany finished second with 35 points.

The 1986 Women's Championship

By finishing three strokes ahead of France and four in front of the United States, Spain became the fourth country to win the Women's World Amateur Team championship, shooting 580 for the four rounds. Since France won the inaugural championship, in 1964, Australia had won in 1978, and the United States had won the other nine.

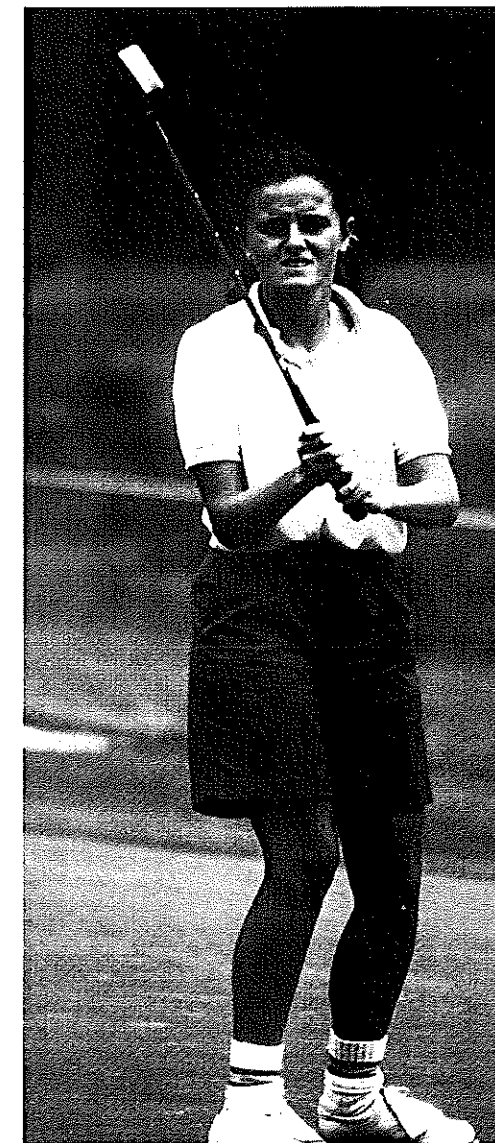

Two months after having won the Curtis Cup Match, against the United States, Great Britain and Ireland looked as if it might add the Espirito Santo Trophy. Playing confident, attacking golf, Jill Thornhill shot 71 and Trish Johnson 72, giving the British and Irish 143 for 18 holes and a four-stroke lead over Australia. Spain, meanwhile was five strokes behind, tied with four other teams, including France, at 148. The United States was eight strokes back.

Although they continued to play steady golf, the British and Irish fell to second place after 36 holes as France, behind a second consecutive 72 by Marie Laure de Lorenzi Taya and a 70 by Valerie Pamard, the French champion, moved in front. France had 290, Great Britain and Ireland 291, and Japan stood in third place, at 293. Spain was fourth, another stroke behind Japan.

Spain won the championship with a stunning third round. Maria Orueta shot 69 and Macarena Campomanes had 70. Not only was the Spaniards' 139 the best team score of the championship, it also moved them two strokes ahead of France. At the end of 54 holes, Spain had a score of 433 against France's 435.

Off first for Spain in the fourth round, Miss Campomanes shot 72, and when Mary Carmen Navarro, playing second, shot 75, giving Spain 580, it was clear that while France had a chance to catch up, it would take a major effort. Mrs. Taya closed with a strong 68, but Cecelia Mourgue d'Algue shot 80, leaving the French women three strokes behind. The United States, meanwhile, had made up hardly any ground through the second and third rounds, and had gone into the last round in fifth place, seven strokes behind Spain. Then, with Leslie Shannon shooting 74 and Kay Cockerill, the American champion, adding her second 70, the Americans slipped into third place with their 144, the best team score of the day. They had picked up three strokes on Spain and four on

With three consecutive 72s and a closing 68, Mrs. Taya shot 284 for the 72 holes, the best individual score, four strokes ahead of the 288 shot by Michiko Hattori, of Japan.

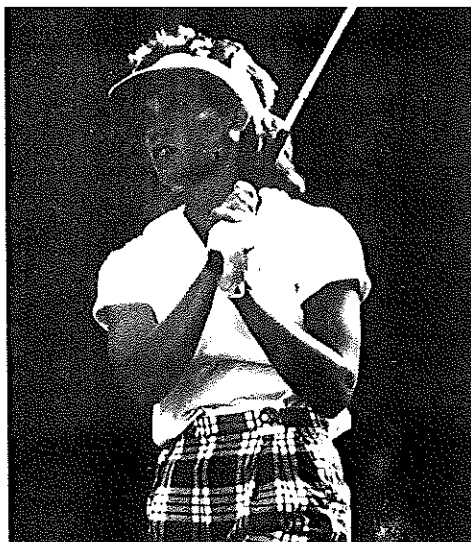

Macarena Campomanes helped Spain capture its first Espirito Santo Trophy with rounds of 70-71-70-70.

The object of the Council is to foster friendship and sportsmanship among the peoples of the world through the conduct biennially of an Amateur Team Championship for the Eisenhower Trophy.

Section 2. Rules of Golf

The Championship shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Golf as approved by The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, and The United States Golf Association; however, if those organizations should have differing codes, the code of the host country shall apply.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility

Membership in the Council is open to any organization which:

(a) Constitutes the sole central authority for amateur golf in its country; and

(b) Has adopted and administers the Rules of Amateur Status of either The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, or The United States Golf Association.

Section 2. Election

An application for membership shall be supported by copies of the applicant's constitution and by-laws or similar documents and such other data as the Administrative Committee determines.

An applicant may be elected to Membership by the Council after determination by the Administrative Committee that the requirements for membership have been met.

Section 3. Finances

(a) Member Organizations shall pay annual dues of $100, payable in January of each year in the currency of the country in which the Council's Administrative Office is located—see Article IX, Section 8, unless prohibited by law or government regulation. Income from dues shall be used to defray all Council expenses relating to men's events. If expenses in a given year result in a deficit in the Council's account, which shall be maintained in the Administrative Office, the deficit shall be shared by those Member Organiza-

Expenses of the Council shall be limited to the following:

- (1) Insurance and maintenance of the Championship trophies;
- (2) Provision of prizes for individuals; and
- (3) Cost of stationery, postage, printing and other communications incurred by the Administrative Office.

Income shall be limited to dues and monies accumulated to eliminate a deficit.

No Member Organization may incur any expense for the Council, and no representative of the Council shall have authority to incur any expense except as expressly stated herein.

(b) Any other expense incident to the affairs of the Council shall be borne by the Member Organization whose representative incurs such expense.

(c) The expense of conducting the Championship shall be borne by the Member Organization entertaining it.

Section 4. Obligations and Discipline

The acceptance of membership in the Council shall bind each Member Organization to uphold all the provisions of these Articles and any rules or actions of the Council or the Administrative Committee.

Any member Organization failing in these obligations or ceasing to meet the eligibility requirements may be suspended or expelled by the Council.

Section 5. Correspondence with Member Organizations

A Member Organization shall not circulate a memorandum to all other Member Organizations without approval of the Administrative Committee.

Section 6. Withdrawal

Any Member Organization may withdraw from membership by notifying the Secretary to that effect.

Any Member Organization so withdrawing shall remain obligated for its annual dues for the year in which withdrawal occurred.

ARTICLE IV

Championship

Section 1. Time

The Championship shall be held biennially, starting in 1958, on such dates as the Council shall determine. Normally, the Championship shall be held in the second or third week of October.

Section 2. Place

(a) The Championship shall be rotated among the

- (1) Australasian Zone — Countries of Asia, Australia, New Zealand and Oceania.
- (2) American Zone — Countries of North America, the Caribbean and South America.
- (3) European-African Zone — Countries of Europe, Africa and the Middle East.

(b) Invitations to entertain the Championship shall be submitted by Member Organizations to the Administrative Office at least three months in advance of the Biennial Meeting immediately preceding. The Secretary shall inform all Member Organizations of such invitations at least one month in advance of the Meeting.

(Note: Invitations may be submitted by any Member Organization in any zone. Although invitations from the appropriate zone will, of course, be given first consideration, it is important that invitations from other zones, particularly the zone next in order, should be available in case no invitation acceptable to the Council has been received from the appropriate zone.)

At the time of submitting its invitation the Member Organization shall represent that, subject to any restrictions imposed upon it by the Government of its country, it will allow all other Member Organizations to compete if its invitation is accepted. It shall also present with its invitation a statement from a properly authorized official of the Government of its country that all Member Organizations, other than those (if any) named in the statement, will be allowed to visit the country and to compete in the Championship without any restriction whatsoever.

At a time not more than eight months and not less than seven months from the first of the month in which the Championship is to take place, both the Member Organization and a properly authorized official of the Government of its country shall reiterate the statement made in the paragraph above.

Championship invitations shall not be issued and pertinent advertising/promotion shall not be engaged in more than 3½ years in advance.

(c) The location of each Championship shall normally be determined by the Council at its Biennial Meeting immediately preceding. In reaching its decision the Council shall have regard to:

- (i) The importance of locating the Championship in the appropriate zone in accordance with Section 2(a) of this Article;
- (ii) The desirability of distributing the location of the Championship fairly among the Member Organizations in each zone; and
- (iii) The degree (if any) to which an invitation to entertain the Championship has been restricted by the Government of the country concerned.

If no invitation acceptable to the Council has been received from within the appropriate zone, the Council may consider and accept any invitation which may have been received from within the zone next in order of rotation.

However, if the Council at its Biennial Meeting is unable, due to a lack of acceptable invitations or for any other reason, finally to decide the location of the next Championship, the Administrative Committee shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure the continuance of the Championship.

(d) The Council shall have the power to waive the annual dues of any Member Organization which, owing to a restriction imposed by the Government of the country in which a particular Championship is being held, has not been invited to participate in that Championship.

ARTICLE V

The Champion shall be the Team with the lowest such total score for 72 holes.

(c) If a tie for the Championship occurs, the Teams concerned shall play off at 18 holes stroke play, the exact day to be determined in advance by the Member Organization entertaining the Championship. The Team with the lowest total score by three players shall win the play-off. Should an 18-hole play-off result in a further tie, the Teams so tied shall immediately continue to play off hole by hole until the winner is determined; the total of the three lowest scores will be the Team score for each hole.

Section 4. Prizes

(a) The Eisenhower Trophy, presented to the Council by friends of golf in the United States through The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews and The United States Golf Association, shall be held for the ensuing biennium by the Member Organization whose Team is the winner.

(a) Prior to a Championship, the Administrative Committee shall appoint a Championship Committee to conduct the event. The host Member Organization shall be represented on the Championship Committee.

(b) The Championship Committee shall be authorized to decide when a Championship course is unplayable.

(c) If a Championship course is declared unplayable and as a result it is not possible to complete 72 holes of play in the period in which the Championship is scheduled, the Championship shall not be extended beyond the last scheduled day and the winner shall be the Team which returns the lowest score for the number of stipulated rounds played, except that, if it is not possible to play at least 36 holes in the four scheduled days, the Championship shall be terminated without a Champion being determined.

(d) The Championship Committee shall be authorized to schedule in advance a round of less than 18 holes, i.e., the Committee shall be authorized to declare before play begins on any day that the stipulated round for that day shall be, for example, nine holes; the Committee shall not be authorized to declare during play of a round that the stipulated round for that day shall be, for example, nine holes if the stipulated round when play began was to be 18 holes.

ARTICLE VI

subject to approval of the Administrative Committee.

(b) Invitations to entertain the Senior Championship shall be submitted by Member Organizations to the Administrative Office at least three months in advance of the meeting of delegates.

Section 4. Form of Play

(a) Each Team shall consist of four players.

(b) The Championship shall consist of a 36-hole stroke play qualifying competition over two days, 18 holes on the first Championship day and 18 holes on the second Championship day, followed by two rounds of match play over two days in flights of 4.

(c) In each 18-hole qualifying round, the total of the three lowest scores by players of a Team shall constitute the Team's score for that round. The total of a Team's three-player scores for the two rounds shall be the Team's qualifying score.

(d) Teams shall be placed in flights for match play according to qualifying scores, with the four lowest-scoring Teams comprising the Championship Flight, the Teams in positions 5 through 8 comprising the Second Flight, and so on.

(e) In event of a tie for last place in the Championship Flight, there shall be a sudden-death play-off among all players of the tied Teams, with the three lowest scores by players of a Team constituting the Team's score for a hole. A tie for last place in any other flight shall be decided by lot.

For example, if the No. 1 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 1 player of Team B, the No. 2 player of Team B, wins the first extra hole from the No. 2 player of Team A, the No. 3 player of Team A wins the first extra hole from the No. 3 player of Team B and the No. 4 players of the two teams halve the first extra hole, Team A would be the winner. Ties in other flights shall be decided on a margin-of-victory basis. If the opposing Teams are also tied on a margin-of-victory basis, there shall be a sudden-death play-off as in the Championship Flight. The winner on a margin-of-victory basis is the Team with the highest figure when the margin-of-victory figures of its winning players are totaled. For example, if players No. 1 and 3 of Team A win by 4-2 and 2-1 and players No. 2 and 4 of Team B win by 3-2 and 2-1, Team A would be the winner as the total of its margin-of-victory figures is 9 (4+2+2+1) compared with B (3+2+2+1) for Team B.

(i) All matches in a given flight will tee off in immediate succession. If necessary, play shall be in groups of four, i.e., the No. 1 players of two opposing Teams would play their match concurrently with the No. 2 players of the same Teams. They would be followed immediately by the No. 3 and 4 players of the same Teams.

(j) If the total number of Teams entered is divisible by 4, each flight shall comprise four Teams. If the total is not divisible by 4, the following schedule will be used. In flights of less than four Teams bye(s) shall be used for the last place(s):

15	4-4-4-3
17	4-4-4-3-2
